Georgia Echols County { in the Petition of L H Bohanan a executor for Probate in solemn form of the Will of Benjamin Bohanan filed November 1st 1920 now comes at this the December term 1920 of the Court of ordinary of Echols County Georgia now addie Strickland and heir at law of Benjamin Bohanan now deceased and enters her caveat to the above stated petition and for grounds of caveat says 1st caveator objects to the said Will being admitted to record and Probated in solemn form on the ground that on the 29th day of January 1917 the said testator Benjamin Bohanan now deceased made and executed in due form of law a codicil to said Will a true and correct copy of such codicil being hereto attached and made a part of this caveat the original of such codicil being herewith tendered to the Court in open Court Caveator does not object to said will as amended by said Codicil being admitted to record and probated in solemn form but does object to the same being admitted to record and probated in solemn form without said Codicil being also admitted to record and probated in solemn form as part and parcel of said will and all this the Caveator is ready to verify
