John Watkins' Will 1841.

I John Watkins of Elbert County in the state of Georgia, being in perfect health & sound discretion & calling to mind the uncertainty of life & of all things do make & ordain this to be my last will & Testament -

1st I have already given to my daughters Lucy & Sarah all the lands & possessions in Abbeville district S. Carolina & lands, lots & improvements in Petersburg ga. as likewise a number of negroes whose names it is useless to mention as they have had them for some time in possession all which I now give to them & their heirs forever -

2nd I give & devise to my son John Daniel Watkins my Ragland tract of land in the following boundaries, viz. Beginning on Broad river at the mouth of Buttrams creek. thence up said river to a corner white oak also the corner of lands granted to - Lamar. thence North twelve degrees west along said grant & in the same direction to Buttrams creek. thence down the said creek to the dry fork of said creek. thence eastwardly a straight line to a stooping red oak corner close on the right hand of the road leading from Thomville to Ragland. thence a straight line eastwardly to where the road leading from Thomville to Petersburg crosses Stark's road which is about the line of lands granted to Thomas Burton. thence southwardly by the line of said grant to where it joins lands granted (I believe) to - Easter thence along said line southwardly to a large white oak on Broad river just below a ditch & thence to the place of beginning. Also all the negroes I have for some time put him into the possession of to him & his heirs forever -

3rd I have given to my daughters Martha & Susan a number of negroes which I now confirm & their increase forever - I also give & devise to my daughters Martha & Susan to be equally divided between them the following lands (viz)
