Georgia Franklin County.
In the name of God, Amen.

I James Miller of the State and County aforesaid, being weak in body, but sound in mind, do hereby make this my last will and Testament. My debts if any there should be, to be punctually paid, as soon as the money can be collected from those that are indebted to my estate. I leave to my wife Adeline Miller an equal part with my surviving Children of both real and personal property, and each Child or Children to receive their distributed share as they become of age, of both real and personal property. It is my wish that there should be strict attention paid in keeping the property together for the younger Children, the said Children to have sufficient schooling out of said estate, if there are opportunities of getting schools convenient.
I leave my wife Adeline with whom I wish she may think proper to take for assistance as Executor of my estate. Given from under My Hand this day and year above written

Georgia }
Franklin County } Be it remembered that I Henry Avery of the State and District of Georgia - being weak in body, but of sound perfect mind, and Memory, blessed be God for the same, do make and publish this my last will & Testament in manner following, that is to say: first of all I recommend my soul to God who gave it, and my body to its mother earth. I wish my body to be buried in a Christian like manner, as to the worldly goods that it hath pleased God to bless me with, I give and dispose of in the following manner -
I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary -
