
Thrice Married.

It was reserved for the JOURNAL reporter, last evening, to witness one of the most novel weddings that has ever taken place in this city. The happy couple were Mr. Geo. W. Karr, originally of Coweta county, but twenty years past a resident of Atlanta, and Mrs. Julia P. Everett, at the cosy little home of the former, No. 15 Magnolia street. Mr. Karr is upwards of seventy-one years of age, and has been married twice before.

He is as sprightly and youthful looking an old gentleman for his years as could possibly be found and has a son nearly fifty years old, in the employ of the New Home Sewing Machine Company here, who was, until recently, with the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

Rev. J. A. Thurman, the well known Methodist minister, performed the marriage ceremony, which took place about half past six o'clock. The bride, nee Mrs. Everett, is very active and energetic. She is about sixty-five years old. May the newly wedded pair live many years to enjoy their happy union.
