

A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

An Old Physician Weds a Young Lady
Sixty-Two Years His Junior.

There was a romantic marriage on Walton street last Thursday evening.

At that time and place Dr. Osiah Stovall was united in wedlock to Miss Bessie Reese, a charming young lady sixty-two years his junior.

Dr. Stovall is one of Atlanta's oldest practicing physicians and has numerous friends who will congratulate him upon his marriage.

Dr. Stovall is a native of Greene county, and enjoys the respect and confidence of everyone who knows him.

Miss Reese is a niece of Dr. Stovall's former wife, who has been dead thirty years.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Ellis, the bridal couple repaired at once to their home on Chapel street.