

Ovizat ¹⁸ Button County Wills
State of Georgia — Elizabeth Parades of Bartow County County of Fulton, being of sound mind and memory in view of the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking of all others Item 1^o I desire that my body be buried in a decent manner.

Item 2^o It is my will and desire that Mary E. Wells wife of John D. Wells, Senr of Fulton County Ga. Shoule have a lifetime estate in all my property, for the separate and sole use of herself, and the education and maintenance of John C. Wells Jr. son of said John D. Wells, to be held by the trustee, hereinafter appointed, for her sole use during her life, subject to the education and main-tanance of said John C. Wells Jr. time at the death of said Mary E. to be vested in the said John D. Wells or in fee simple, the property then belonging to him being of a Negro woman Mahala Amanda aged about cifteen years & her child named Harris aged about One year six months. Household Utensils furniture Wife, and Accents. And lastly, such other thing be found belonging to her estate.

And whereas my appoint John D. Wells the Executor to this my last will & Testament, to take charge of the whole of my estate and also to set an account just in Mas of 10th Janur 1860 for her to accounting to him as said Executor & Successor for his payment to his heirs all and singular of said estate better with its increaser, either at present or hereafter due to the sum out of the said estate, and the same as should be to be distributed in like manner, full & free among his first said life estate to be free from the right of the ~~successor~~ present or any future husband. To which will and desire that Amanda and her child Harris be kept together during the life of said John C. to be him lawfully by the executors of this writing, using first wife and husband together in this place and the one opposite of this street. I am this day hereunto subscribing my Name before witness John H. Taffising my lawyer after the same was read to me this 1st day of May Elizabeth Parades ^{signed}

To the Testimony whereof the foregoing were made this day and year, namely, to Elizabeth Parades in our presence that we saw her sign her Name to make this her last will and testament of the above in our presence as appears above the 1st day of May 1860,

Marcus G. Lee, John T. Taffising

Georgia, in the County of Fulton, on the 8th day of November 1810, for the purpose of proving the Will of Elizabeth Paradis, late of the Testatrix to make Will, viz. Marcus A. Bell and John Neal, And the Will herein is made & proven before me by John W. Wells the Notary, who sets his Application for the probate thereof, they the said Testresses doswere and say They say Elizabeth Paradis Seign Seal Publish & declare the same to be her last will and testament, freely, voluntaril y and of her own Accord, without any influence or Compulsion whatever, and that said testatrix was of sound and disposing Mind & Memory when she made the same, that said Testresses signed this ~~document~~ Name thereunto as Testresses, in presence of the testatrix, at her request & in presence of each other, and that they saw John Bell sign his Name as Testress thereto, in presence of testatrix at her request, and in her presence Signed to Substantiate Marcus A. Bell before me Nov 8th 1810 John Neal

John W. Wells, Notary

Recorded March 9th 1811

J. W. Wells, C. S.

Francis H. Coleraine's Will

State of Georgia, in the County of Fulton, the Name of God Amen I Francis H. Coleraine of said Co. now being lawfully beddy heath, but of sound Mind, understanding my Mortality, do make and Publish this as my last Will concerning the disposition of my property after my death by way of Will all Wills herebefore executed by me I make, first, It is my desire that my Executor shall be Coleraine, And my friend Wilson, the son of said said H. Co. And as Executor of this Will I make, second, It is my will that my Executors proceed immediately after my death to collect my assets & pay my debts according to law Item, third, I write that after payment of debts the remainder of my estate, be especially divided between my said leg. wife Coleraine Item fourth, I will that my Executors have discretion and power to sell my Stock in trade at public or private Sales, in such manner as they may think best for the interest of all concerned

Hence forth, all my losses and cost of the Real Estate, Con-