

Georgia, 3rd District, 1st of Chambers on the 8th day of Fulton County, 3rd November 1840, for the purpose of proving the will of Elizabeth Paradis, one of the witnesses to said will, viz Marcus A Bell and John Neal, and the will the Executor, John Neal, his Application for the probate thereof, they the said witnesses depose and say they saw Elizabeth Paradis sign seal publish & declare the same to be her last will and testament, freely, voluntarily and of her own Accord, without any influence or Compulsion whatever, and that said testatrix was of sound and disposing mind & memory, when she executed the same, that said witnesses signed their names therein as witnesses, in presence of the testatrix, at her request & in presence of each other, and that they saw John Neal sign his name as witness thereto, in presence of testatrix at her request, and in our presence Sworn to before us before me Nov 8th 1840
John Neal
Marcus A Bell
Jos. H. Meade, Ordinary

Recorded March 7th 1841

J. H. Meade, Clerk

Francis H. Coleman's Will State of Georgia, 3rd District, 1st of Chambers Fulton County, 3rd November 1840, for the purpose of proving the will of Francis H. Coleman of said State, now being over in bodily health, but of sound mind, and acknowledging my mortality, do make and publish this as my last will concerning the disposition of my property after my death hereby revoking all wills heretofore executed by me First, It is my will that my Executor, Francis H.
Coleman, and my friend, Edward H. Dawson, of said State, County, City and Ecclesiastical of this will Secondly, It is my will that my Executor proceed immediately after my death to collect my assets & pay my debts according to law Thirdly, I will that after payment of debts the remainder of my estate, be equally divided between my said wife and children Fourthly, I will that my Executors have discretion any power to sell my estate in whole or in part at public or private sale, in such manner as they may think best for the interest of all concerned Fifthly, I will that my Executor and the Real Estate, Com-acted there with, I think it is Advisable to file in in the present embarrassed State of the Country. But should it become necessary or desirable, in the winding up, of my estate I give this my said Executors, have discretion to sell the same or any part thereof as they may deem best

Witness whereof I have here to set my hand and seal this the second day of August 1841

Francis McColeman

Signed Sealed Published and declared by the said Francis McColeman as his last will in the presence of us, who in the presence of each other, & of the testator at his request, have signed hereto as Subscribing Witnesses this August 2^d 1841

John T. Clarke

Saml C. Offutt

E. S. Calhoun

We Edward H. Rawson & Sarah McColeman do solemnly swear that this Writing contains the true last will and Testament of the Within Named Francis McColeman deceased, And that we will faithfully execute the same, by paying first the debts and then the legacies, contained in said will, as far as the goods & Chattels will thereunto extend, and the law requires, & that we will make a true and perfect inventory of all such goods and Chattels Whelp us God - Donec So Subscribed in Open Court this fifth day of August 1841 Edw. H. Rawson Ex-
Sarah A. Coleman Ex-

Filed in Office August 5th 1841

Recorded August 7th 1841

Attest Notary