Last Will and Testament of J C Orum

State of Georgia I J C Orum of the County and State County of Fulton, Aforesaid do make Publish and declare my last Will and Testament as follows First, I charge my estate with Ten hundred and fifty dollars or as much of that sum as may be necessary to be applied in indemnifying George R Hull for any loss which he may sustain in the Capital invested by him in the Atlanta Tannery, His investment is one thousand dollars, and if he realizes that sum from his stock by the combined means of sale, rent, and dividends, or in any manner whatsoever, then he takes nothing from my estate, but if after a fair sale of his stock, there remain a deficiency in his principal (after adding to the proceeds of sale all previous income from the stock) then my Executor is directed to make up such deficiency to him so far as the amount above set apart for the purpose will extend. Loss Occasioned by fire is not intended to be provided for in this bequest Second, Set apart Ten hundred fifty dollars more in order to place Adam R Jones in the same footing in a case exactly similar in all respects to the foregoing Third, All my estate except what may be necessary to carry out the two Wills above, I divide into seven equal shares, and give them as follows forever To My Mother Lucy Orum, One Share, and as a part thereof, One hundred forty one shares of stock in the Nashville & Chattanooga Railroad, which I value to her at seventeen hundred and fifty two dollars and fifty cents ($1742.50) To William P Orum, One Share, and as a part thereof my stock in the Atlanta Tannery, which I value to him at fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) To Francis M Orum, One Share, and as a part thereof One hundred shares of stock in the Nashville & Chattanooga RR which I value to him at twelve hundred and fifty dollars ($1250.00)
To Lewis M Orum, One Share, and as a part thereof
