At a Surrogate's Court held at the Village of Bath in and for said County of Steuben, on the 18th Day of January, A. D. 1904.

Present. Hon. Monroe Wheeler, Surrogate.

In the matter of proving the last will and Testament of Jacob Eggabroat deceased.

An order having heretofore been made that the proofs herein be taken forthwith and all the heirs at law and next of kin having appeared in support of the proof of the said last Will and Testament, and no one opposing, after hearing the proofs and allegations of the said heirs and next of kin, and duly deliberating thereon; It is adjudged and Decreed that the said instrument, propounded as the last will and testament of the said Jacob Eggabroat deceased, and dated December 21st 1903. was duly executed and published as and for the last will and testament of said decedent; that the same is genuine and valid; that the said Jacob Eggabroat deceased at the time of executing the same was in all respects competent to make a last will and Testament and to devise real estate, and was not under any restraint, and this Court doth further order and decree that the said last Will and Testament, and the proofs and examinations taken in respect to the same, be recorded, and that the said last will and Testament be admitted to probate, and that the same be, and is hereby established as a will valid to pass real and personal property,

Monroe Wheeler. Surrogate.

It is further Decreed, that Letters of Administration with the will annexed, issue to Charles Eygabroat as Administrator with the will annexed of the said estate, he having taken the oath and filed the bond required by law, and the same having been filed in the Office of said Surrogate.

Dated January 25th 1904. Monroe Wheeler.

I, Jacob Eygabroat of the Town of Campbell, in the County of Steuben and state of New York, being of sound mind and memory, do make publish and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say;

First. I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

Second. I give devise and bequeath to my son Jacob Eygabroat, my Home farm whereon I now reside, described in deed from Deborah Borland and Emerson N. Borland to me, bearing date Oct. 29th 1870. duly recorded in Steuben County, and from John Cooper and others to me, bearing date January 6th 1871. duly recorded in Steuben County, and sufficient of the lands deeded to me by John Cooper heirs, and adjoining the above described lands on the West to make said Home farm extend as far west from the Conhocton river as the west line of the Bassett one hundred acres, which adjoins my lands on the north, together with all my household furniture, all my teams, wagons, sleds, farming tools, machinery and implements of all kinds, all my cows and other live stock kept and used on said farm, also all fodder, and produce of said farm of all kinds, I hereby give to my said son Jacob with said farm, to him his heirs and assigns forever.

Third. I give devise and bequeath to my son Charles Eygabroat, all my lands while now are, and for several years last past have been occupied and used by him, and lying and lying in the Town of Campbell aforesaid, and in addition to the last above mentioned lands, I give devise and bequeath to my said son Charles, all that piece or parcel of land adjoining lands of said Charles, and lying east of a straight line running from Albert Haugh's east corner, south to Mud Run Creek, and being a portion of Fourth. I give devise and bequeath to my son Abram Eygabroat, all my lands while now are, and used by him aforesaid; and in addition to the last above mentioned lands, I give devise and bequeath to my said son Abram, all that piece or parcel of land, and lying east of Haugh's east corner, and being a portion of Abram Hallenbeck's

Fifth. I give devise and bequeath to my son Jacob Eygabroat, all my lands while now are, and used by him aforesaid; and in addition to the last above mentioned lands, I give devise and bequeath to my said son Jacob, all that piece or parcel of land, and lying east of Haugh's east corner, and being a portion of Abram Hallenbeck's

Sixth. I give devise and bequeath to my son Jacob Eygabroat, all my lands while now are, and used by him aforesaid; and in addition to the last above mentioned lands, I give devise and bequeath to my said son Jacob, all that piece or parcel of land, and lying east of Haugh's east corner, and being a portion of Abram Hallenbeck's

Seventh. I give devise and bequeath to my son Jacob Eygabroat, all my lands while now are, and used by him aforesaid; and in addition to the last above mentioned lands, I give devise and bequeath to my said son Jacob, all that piece or parcel of land, and lying east of Haugh's east corner, and being a portion of Abram Hallenbeck's

Fifth. I give devise and bequeath to my grand son William Eygabroat, and to my granddaughter Clara Eygabroat, children of my deceased son William, all my interest in certain lands situate in the counties of Gilmer, Fannin and Murray, in the State of Georgia, owned by me in common with Charles A. Wilder, Jerome I. Stanton and others, my interest being an undivided one eighth of about 29200 acres; and in case a sale of said Georgia lands shall precede my death, I hereby give devise and bequeath to my said grandchildren, William and Clara, the avails thereof, to be divided equally between them, share and share alike, Sixth. I give devise and bequeath to my brother John Henry Eygabroat, the use, for and during the term of his natural life, of my farm, upon which he now resides in the Town of Addison, Steuben Co. N.Y. formerly owned by my father; and at the decease of my said brother, I hereby give devise and bequeath the said last mentioned farm to my grandson William Eygabroat aforesaid.

Seventh. I give devise and bequeath to my granddaughter Clara Eygabroat, aforesaid, the farm owned by me, lying and being in the aforesaid Towns of Addison and Campbell, which now are, and for several years past, have been occupied and worked upon shares by Eugene Hough,

Eighth. I give devise and bequeath to my adopted daughter Nellie Balcom, wife of Frank Balcom, one hundred acres of the lands next adjoining said

Balcom lands on the easterly side, purchased by me from the heirs of John Cooper deceased, or from Frances E. Cooper in the year 1872, and being and lying in the town of Erwin, Steuben Co. N.Y. hereby reserving the right and privilege to my said brother John Henry Eygabroat and said Eugene Hough, to enter upon said last mentioned lands, and get fuel for family use, the same as they have heretofore done, as long as they shall occupy the lands above mentioned while they now occupy as tenants,

Ninth, All the rest, residue and remainder of all my estate, both real and personal, I give devise and bequeath as follows; The same to be divided into four equal shares, one of which said shares I hereby give devise and bequeath to each of my said sons Charles, John, and Jacob, and one-half share each to my said grandchildren William and Clara Eygabroat,

Tenth, I hereby direct my executor hereinafter named to cause surveys of the lands hereinbefore mentioned to be made as soon as may be convenient after my decease, for the purpose of ascertaining the particular boundaries of the ____ of the several parcels thereof hereby devised and bequeathed and I hereby authorize, empower and direct my said executor to execute and deliver deeds of conveyance of the lands hereinbefore described, devised and bequeathed to the several legatees hereinbefore named, if the same shall be necessary to carry into effect the provisions, or either of them, of this my last will and Testament.

Lastly, I hereby nominate and appoint ____ executor of this my last will and testament; hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name the 21st day of December 1903.

At a Surrogate's Court held at the Village of Bath in and for said County of Steuben, on the 18th Day of January, A.D. 1904.

Present. Hon. Monroe Wheeler, Surrogate.

In the matter of proving the last will and Testament of Jacob Eygabroat Deceased.

An order having heretofore been made that the proofs herein be taken forthwith, and all the heirs at law and next of kin having appeared in support of the proof of the said last Will and Testament, and no one opposing, after hearing the proofs and allegations of the said heirs and next of kin, and duly deliberating thereon; It is adjudged and Decreed that the said instrument, propounded as the last will and testament of the said Jacob Eygabroat deceased, and dated December 21st 1903. was duly executed and published as and for the last will and testament of said decedent: that the same is genuine and valid; that the said Jacob Eygabroat deceased at the time of executing the same was in all respects competent to make a last will and Testament and to devise real estate, and was not under any restraint, and this Court doth further order and decree that the said last Will and Testament, and the proofs and examinations taken in respect to the same, be received, and that the said last will and Testament be admitted to probate, and that the same be, and is hereby established as a will valid to pass real and personal property,

Monroe Wheeler. Surrogate.

It is further Decreed, that Letters of Administration with the will annexed, issue to Charles Eygabroat as Administrator with the Will annexed of the said estate, he having taken the oath and filed the bond required by law, and the same having been filed in the Office of said Surrogate.

Dated January 25th 1904. Monroe Wheeler.

Last Will and Testament of Nathan I. Tabor.

State of Georgia
Gilmer County: }

I, Nathan I Tabor of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and Testament.

Item 1st. I wish my executors as soon as possible after my death, to pay my debts, if there be any, out of such personal property as can be most advantageously used for that purpose, and I authorize them, if a sale be necessary, to sell at public or private sale, as they may think best.

Item 2d. I give to my beloved wife Jane Esther Tabor the following property to wit:- all personal property of whatever kind of which I may die possessed after paying my debts and funeral expense. I also give for and during her natural life land lot No. 185 in the Sixth District and Second Section of Gilmer County, Georgia, on which we now reside, with remainder over after her death, to my three children, Thomas H. Tabor, Emma C. Tabor and Harriet E Hudson. to be divided equally among them. Should it become necessary to sell for division, I authorize my executors to sell the same at public or private sale, as they may see fit.

Item 3d. I will that all outlying lands and mineral interests received by me of which I die possessed be sold to best advantage, at public or private sale, as soon as can be done without sacrifice. The net proceeds of said sales

Will of W. M. Finlannon.

State of Georgia, Gilmer County:

I, W. M. Finlannon of said State and county being of sound ~~mind~~ and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament.

Item First:— I give to my daughter Emily Simmons the following land in the simple to wit: ~~a part~~ portion of land lot #136 in the 2nd district of Gilmer County Beginning at the northwest corner of said lot, thence running up the river a southeasterly course to the upper end of the canebrake to a fence, thence with said fence a northerly course to the original line on the north side of said lot, thence west to the beginning point, Also lot of land No 118 and parts of lots of land nos. 98 and 99 containing two hundred and sixty acres more or less, the same being the land deeded to me by Mary L. Simmons, Jany 8th 1895 and recorded in Clerks office said County in Book U page 154, Jany 17, 1895.

Item second:— I give to my daughter Mary Weaver, the following land, in fee simple to wit: part of lot of land No. 135 containing fifty acres more or less, and bounded as follows: Beginning at the northeast corner of said lot, and thence running down and with the creek to the River, a southeasterly course, thence down and with the river to the canebrake and fence, thence north with said fence to the original line on the north side of said lot, thence east with the original line to the beginning point.

Item third:— I give to my daughter Amanda Edmunds, the following land in fee simple to wit:- Part of said land Lot No 135, bounded as follows: Commence at the northeast corner of said lot No 135 and run thence a southeasterly course down and with the creek to a large rock on the south bank of the creek, to be designated as the beginning point, thence down the creek in a westerly direction to the river, thence up the river, a southerly course to the original line on the south side of said lot No 135 thence east to the southeast corner, thence north to the Old Blairsville as it formerly ran thence west to a poplar tree, thence a northwesterly course by a straight line to said large rock, the beginning point.

Also Lot of land No 157, containing one hundred and sixty acres more or less. Also a one-sixth interest in that part of said lot No 135 which lies on the southwest side of the river, and of one-fourth of an acre of land lot No 136 carved out of and from its eastern boundary, also four acres, triangular in shape, of and out of the north side of land lot No 154 the last three numbers being conveyed to me by J. T. Ellison by deed dated Dec 5, 1895 and recorded in Clerk's Office said County in Book W Page 428, to which reference is made. All of the land lots named by number, in this Item, and all such named in Items "First" and "Second" of this will, lying and being in the Sixth district & Section in said County of Gilmer. I further give to my said daughter Amanda, the money I advanced for her to pay Lewis Edmondson for parts of said land lots Nos. 135 136 and 154 and for which she holds his paid Bond for Titles. I further give my said daughter, the sum of Five hundred dollars in cash, to be paid out of the residue of my estate.

Item Fourth: I for reasons satisfactory to myself, I do not make any direct gift or bequest to my daughter Rocia Edmondson but I direct that my executors hereafter
