

Georgia Glascock County

I F. L. Calhoun Ordinary of said County, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the last will of Marion Newsum duly proved before me in Common form August Term 1881 at a regular term of the Court of Ordinary, that David Denton and Joda Newsum named therein as Executors duly qualified before me at said term, and to vest them with full authority to execute said will, I have duly issue to them the Letters Testamentary annexed to said copy of will

In testimony whereof I, the said ordinary, have hereto set my hand and Seal of office this 1st day of August 1881

F. L. Calhoun Ordinary

State of Georgia

Glascock County } I Peter Ury of said County & State

Being now an old man but of sound mind and memory and desiring to dispose of the property that I have accumulated and saved by a life of industry and economy, do make publish and declare this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all wills that may have been heretofore made by me

Item First I desire all my just debts to be paid by my Executor hereinafter appointed as soon after my death as is consistent with the best interest of my estate

Item Second I direct my Executor to see that my body is decently buried by the side of my first wife upon my plantation in said County

Item Third To my wife Francis Ury I give the plantation where I now ~~live~~ reside known as my "home place" containing three hundred and twenty five acres more or less Subject however to corrections and limitations hereinafter ^{expressed} I give to my wife two hours to be selected from any I may have on hand at my death - she to make the selection & take any two that she wants - I give her also my buggy, a two horse wagon, all of my house hold & kitchen furniture, three cows and two sows & pigs to be selected by her, one hundred & fifty bushels of Corn - two thousand bundles of fodder, plow gear, tools &c to run a two ^{hundred} farm and Four hundred Dollars in cash to be paid her immediately after my death out of any money I may have on hand. If it so happens that I have time of my death all the personal property mentioned in this item my executor is directed to purchase for my wife such as is necessary to enable him to turn over to her all of the articles mentioned in this item

Item Fourth

All of the property both real and personal given to my wife under the third item of this will, is given her for and during her natural life only and it is my will and desire that at the death of my said wife Francis, all the property given her by this will shall become the property of my daughter Macie and my grand daughter Mary Ann Elisabeth daughter of my said Child Macie as tenants in common. My said wife Francis taking under this will a life estate with remainder at her death to my said daughter & grand daughter

Item Fifth

To my Son "Tip" Urry I give my saddle horse bridle and saddle and two hundred acres of land to be cut off from that portion of my lands in Glascock County that lie next to the lands of Seth Wilson - upon the following condition to wit: that my said Son shall not marry Emma Dunn of said County of Glascock - Believing that marriage with said Emma Dunn would result in the downfall and ruin of my said Son. I desire that the legacy herein given him shall return to my estate & pass under the residuary clause of this will, should he at any time contract marriage with the said Emma Dunn

Item Sixth

The balance of my estate of every character and description not hereinbefore disposed of together with the legacy to my Son "Tip" should the same be defeated by his marriage with Emma Dunn - I desire my executor to convert into cash and to invest the same in safe & good securities to be selected by him and in like manner to invest all interest that may accumulate from said fund from time to time - I desire my executor to hold together and manage said fund as above indicated until the majority of all my grand children herein after named, to wit: Peter Urry, Wm John Urry, Earnest Urry, Nancy Urry, Urry children of my son Wiley Urry, Wm Thomas Jackson Urry, Minnie Belle Urry children of my son James Urry, James Newsum, Fulcham Newsum, Essie Newsum & Angelo Newsum children of my daughter Catharine Newsum and Fulcham Hughes child of my daughter

Martha Hughes when the youngest of my said grandchildren shall reach the age of twenty one I desire my executor to divide said fund with the accumulated interest upon the same equally between such of my said grandchildren above named as are living at that time

I appoint my friend W. R. Vogue in whom I have unlimited confidence executor of this my last will

Witness my hand & Seal this 28th day of July 1882
