

State of Georgia
Glynn County } In the Honorable Court of the Superior Court of said County, sitting for ordinary purposes -

The petition of Francis E. Bond, trustee, that he has in his hands a bond of $300 signed by Henry S. Bell of Danvers, which was lately the property of John Matheson late of the township of Whittemore, county of Montgomery, state of Pennsylvania, deceased, which was sent your petitioner for collection by his administrators in Pennsylvania, that by law, administrators in one state cannot bring suit in another state, therefore your petitioner, having reason to believe that said Bell intended to leave the county, and at the request of said administrators, applied to the Clerk of the Court for temporary letters of administration, which were granted, and committed a writ upon said bond which said Bell still holds.

Your petitioner further represents that notice of his application to the appointed administrators has been published in the Commercial Advertiser for more than thirty days and one has appeared to reject said appointment and that he has returned an inventory of all the property belonging to the estate of said Matheson that has come to his knowledge of possession, and as your petitioner is unable personally to attend at this term of the Court as his partner is absent from the State and is unjustly called home to Danvers, therefore he prays by this petition that permanent letters of administration may be granted to him by said Clerk, upon his complying with the law in such case made & provided.
