"I James W. Clutt" being of sound and disposing mind, and being desirous of setting my writing affairs to rest and publish my last will and testament, hereby, making and making with all former wills by me made.
My soul I surrender to my Creator, and direct my body to be decently buried, and as to and my real estate as it has pleased my Maker to give me, I dispose of as herein directed.
Item first, I direct that all my real estate on Cumberland Island, Camden County, together with the negroes, horses, hogs, corn fields, household and kitchen furniture, plantation tools, &c. &c. and tract, which I may die possessed of, shall remain in possession of my wife Rebecca Clutt, if she survives me, during her natural life, and the income of the above mentioned property, shall be used and appropriated for the support of my above named wife, and such of my unmarried children and grandchildren as are not otherwise provided for, and may choose to live on the plantation, with my wife Rebecca Clutt, the remainder of the property of which I may die possessed, shall be kept and held in trust till the decease of my above mentioned wife Rebecca Clutt and then all my real and personal property shall be divided into six equal shares, and in the event my wife Rebecca Clutt does not survive me then at my death all my real and personal property of which I die possessed of shall be divided as above mentioned and disposed of as herein directed.

Item second, I give and bequeath, one sixth part of my estate, both real and personal of which I may die possessed, to my son James W. Clutt in trust for his children, born in lawful wedlock from the body of his present or any future wife.

Item third, I give and bequeath to my son Elias W. Clutt, one sixth part of my estate, both real and personal of which I may die possessed, to hold in trust in fee but not to be controlled by him till the decease of my wife Rebecca Clutt, in case survives me.

Item fourth, I give and bequeath my son James W. Clutt and Elias W. Clutt in trust for my daughter Emily Clutt, one sixth of my real and
