

Georgia } The Honorable the Court of Ordinary for
 Glynn County } County and State aforesaid. - To Bridget Holding, late of the County and State aforesaid,
 Widow of Thomas Holding, deceased, having whilst he lived, and at the time of his death, Real and Personal Estate within the County and State aforesaid, by means thereof the full disposition and power of granting the administration of all and sundry the Real and Personal Estate of the said deceased, and also settling the accounts, calculations and settlements of the said Administration, a final dismission and release to the Court is manifestly known to belong; I desiring of the same Real and Personal Estate of the said deceased, may be well and truly administered, conveyed and well disposed of, in trust and unto the said Bridget Holding Administratrix full power, by the terms of these presents, to administer the Real and Personal Estate of the said deceased which to him in his lifetime, and at the time of his death did belong; and to ask, levy, sue for, recover and receive for both as the Real and Personal Estate will extend, according to their rate and order of law, being first sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God to make a true and perfect inventory thereof, and to exhibit the same into the Court of Ordinary, for record in Order to be recorded, on or the 12th day of November next ensuing, and to render a just and true account and statements required; And I ordain, appoint, and constitute you the said Bridget Holding Administratrix of all and constitute you the Real and Personal Estate of the said deceased.

Witness the Honorable Stephen J. Corton Ordinary for Glynn County, this 3rd day of September in the year of our Lord 1866
