Georgia Greene County 3 I Archibald Gresham of the State and County aforesaid do make and Ordain this my last Will and Testament

I will that all my just debts be paid out of my Estate by my Executors hereafter named, and the remainder of my Estate to be disposed of in the following manner viz

It is my will that my wife Nancy Gresham have the use and Occupancy of my houses and plantation whereon I now live together with my household and kitchen furniture, and also a sufficiency of Farming Utensils to enable her to carry on the Farm for and during her natural life, and at her death to be divided among my children in the manner herein after pointed out

And it is my will that the plantations whereon I now live together with all my lands comprising the same at the death of my wife be divided into two equal parts and valued by three disinterested men chosen for that purpose having regard to quantity and quality, which when so divided I give unto my two sons Sterling Gresham and Young Felix Gresham and their heirs forever with this provision that the said Young Felix Gresham have the houses and plantation by paying the said Sterling Gresham the difference in valuation if any difference there be

And it is my will that the property of every description (except that part loaned to my wife above) be put up into seven lots equal in valuation and drawn for and distributed in the following manner viz to my wife Nancy Jenkins one equal distributive share which is to include the property loaned her in the second Section. To my daughters Melly Jenkins Polly Jenkins (and) Nancy Wozzy (and) my sons Sterling Gresham (and) Young Gresham each one equal share or part of (said) property when so divided. It is further my will that in making up personal property into lots for valuation that that part together with its increase shall given to my daughters Melly Jenkins (and) Polly Jenkins (and) Nancy Wozzy be brought together (and) make a part of their distributive share viz to them an equal distributive share each, including the property already given them with its increase.

5th To my sons Sterling Gresham and Young Gresham in trust to (and for the use and support of the issue of my daughter Frances Rhodes I give the remaining seventh part my personal property also two hundred Dollars us are equivalent to her proportionable of my lands, to be by the (said) Trustees applied exclusively to the support and maintenance of my (said) daughter Frances (and her child or children, and as her child or children arrive at lawful age or marry they are to receive from the above named Trustees one distributive share of the property so given in trust, always allowing my (said) daughter to be entitled during her life to a child's part of (said) property and at her death the of the property so given in trust shall go to (and) be equally divided among her children then alive or among the surviving children of her children but provided she dies leaving no lawful descendant at her death, then the property so given in trust to revert to my other children named in this will and equally divided among them or their heirs.

6th It is my will that all that part or portion of my Estate herein devised to my daughters before named, should they die without issue, revert at their decease to those of surviving children before named or their heirs.

7th It is also my wish (and) desire that in consequence of the last (and) will and Test of James M Jenkins deceased in which will he has left all his property both real and personal to his children Sterling Gresham Jenkins Pleasant C Jenkins James M Jenkins (and) Frances Adeline Jenkins in case that his wife should marry again, (and) for the above reasons I do that all that part or portion of my Estate which my daughter Melly Jenkins has not yet received shall belong to her (and) her issue should she marry the second time not to those already named in their Father's will (and) in case she should die without further issue then (and) in that case all the property willed to her and them coming from my Estate shall at her decease belong to her children as before named.

8th It is my will and desire that my Executors shall after my decease furnish out my Estate for the use of Sterling Gresham Jenkins two negro girls about his own age or as near as the Case will admit of, or three hundred Dollars in Cash to help to interest as my Executors may think best, (and) in case he the (said) Sterling Gresham Jenkins should die before he arrives at lawful age, then (and) in that case the property shall return to my children as before mentioned.

9th It is my will that after the division of my personal property as has already pointed out the sum of two hundred Dollars each be paid to my daughters Melly Jenkins Polly Jenkins (and) Nancy Wozzy as an equivalent to their proportionable share of my lands otherwise disposed of.

10th It is also my will and desire that my Executors shall direct that no part of my property be exposed to public sale and that they shall justly direct that no part of my property be exposed to public sale.
