Edward Woodham's Will

Georgia Greene County. In the name of God Amen. I Edward Woodham of said County being old and infirm and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life do make & ordain this to be my last will and Testament. I commit my body to the dust to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors and my soul to God who gave it; And as to my worldly Estate real & personal I do hereby divide and bequeath it in the following manner.

- 1st I give and bequeath to wife Hannah Woodham for and during her natural life two negroes Daniel and Amy and one bed and furniture of which she is to have the sole & entire possession Control & benefit; and at her death my will and desire is that said negroes bed & furniture be sold by my Executor & the proceeds equally divided among my Children; if any of my Children shall before my said wife then the part or share of the proceeds of said property to which such Child would be entitled shall go to be divided equally among such Children as he or she may leave at the time of his or her death.
- 2nd My will and desire is that the remainder of my personal Estate be sold as soon after my death as it can be legally done and that my real Estate be also sold agreeably to law; but should it appear that my said cannot be sold without a considerable sacrifice my Executors are at liberty to postpone the sale thereof till such time as they in their discretion may deem most for the interest of my Estate.
- 3rd Out of the proceeds of my Estate I wish all my just debts paid with as little delay as may comport with the interest of the Estate; and the remainder of the proceeds in the following manner; in
