Minutes of the Inferior Court of Gwinnett County January extra Term 1824.

No. 129.

Ordered by the Court that Joseph Melton, Elisha Winn, & Young Moore Esquires be and are hereby appointed Commissioners of Roads in Captain Dunlaps district.

Georgia
Gwinnett County } To the honorable the Inferior Court for said County.

The petition of the subscribers trustees of the Academy in said County respectfully sheweth, That your petitioners anxious to cooperate with your Honors in contributing to the happiness & welfare of their fellow citizens & the reputation of their County, & unwilling that Counties of the same age, and much more, that those whose soil bore only the print of savage footsteps when the political existence of this County commenced, should be before them in establishing seminaries of learning, are desirous, without delay, of commencing a building for the County Academy on a scale in some degree proportioned to the population & prospects of the County, but having received only the sum of five hundred Dollars from the treasury of the State, being disappointed in their just & reasonable expectations of aid from the Legislature, must now look to your Honors for that aid, without which the citizens of Gwinnett must for some time remain the humble tributaries of older Counties & dependent on them not only for a classical education of their sons and daughters, but also for instructors of primary schools. Under these circumstances your petitioners most respectfully pray that your Honors in the exercise of the powers vested in you by an act of the last Legislature, will grant to your petitioners in their capacity of trustees of said Academy, that portion of the State Tax which, by the said act your Honors are authorized to appropriate to such purposes as to you may seem fet. Upon such application being made your Petitioners are ready to pledge themselves immediately to commence the said building and to have it in readiness in the course of the present year. And your Petitioners will ever pray &c. Jan. 5th 1824.
