Will.

Georgia, Gwinnett County.

I, G. L. W. Ambrose, of said State and county, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

Item 1.

It is my will that all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible.

Item 2.

It is my will that my body be given a decent burial, the expense of which is to be consistent with my financial affairs at the time of my death.

Item 3.

I hereby give and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Mrs. Dora Burtchaell, all my property, both real and personal of every character. I make this disposition of my property for the reason that my said daughter lived with and cared for myself and wife for thirty years and since the death of my said wife, she has continued to live with and care for me and I know she will continue to do so. Also for the further reason that all my other children have been married a long time and are now in splendid circumstances.

Item 4.

I make this disposition of my property to the exclusion absolutely, of two certain deeds as follows: A warranty deed dated May 1905 to my daughter Mrs. Georgia Byrd, Burpee Station to convey the property wherein I now reside, and a warranty deed to my homeplace in Lawrenceville, Ga., also a deed of trust to J. A. Ambrose dated the property known as the Brown place on the Decatur Public road, on the north side of said road, about one mile Westerly ing sixty-nine acres more or less, to my daughter Mrs. Dora Burtchaell and her husband, W. L.

Burtchaell for life, with reversion to certain of my grandchildren named therein. This, my last will, is to be to the exclusion of said deeds for the reason that at the time of the execution of said deeds I was not mentally capacitated to make a deed or contract any business involving transfers of property. While in this condition I was overpersuaded, induced and unduly controlled by my daughter, Mrs. Georgia Byrd, to sign said deeds, that dealing at the time the purport of the said deeds at the time of signing same.

Item 5.

I hereby constitute and appoint James L. Brown as Executor of this my last will and testament.

In testamony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand
