I am so surprised that my Quarrel should be long when I have such without charging the you for some claims by you to the and I am not at all, except as you are not to be concerned to remember themselves in some business in a way to them for them to pay out of their own pockets in a way to the affairs of the estate and nothing to do with it.

The foregoing ought and may have been made my last word and that is all. George W. H. being told George headed, delayed, and troubled by George W. H. being as his last will and testament in the presence as the testament, who had been and was now dead in the presence of said testament at his special instance and request
