[illegible]

now have also a negro boy called Sam. To say how William treasured & cherished & fed us that piece of his of Sam as a young boy and part of Thomas' hand, and a negro boy called Henry. To say how fondly I gave a negro boy called Isaac together with the handwritten. To say how much I loved him, & gave him a name, with other people & Benjamin & John from the plantation gave each of them a horse and a pair of shoes of a kind which my Brethren that thought them. I have sometimes given to my large air, but a & sometimes each a negro girl and other people and I have given the title of that property in them.
I allow my Brethren to sell at private sale, when they may think most suitable. The following list of land my fifty acres more or less of the lot of land which Robert King formerly had, being part of the lot which William King now has, also fifty acres of lot 2 or 3, and Thomas' Brethren formerly had, also a part of lot which I drew on the Georgia Agency Trusted Company. Part of the proceeds of the sale of this land and the sale of whatever other my wife may not mind to sell, and the money collected from debts and such, I direct that all my wife be paid, and that my Brethren pay to my wife Henry, William and hundred dollars within six months or more as they may think it most advise, and all the balance to be reserved to pay whatever debts may be incurred in the management & settlement of a law suit now pending against me brought by John and others, and after that settlement takes place, whatever balance may be, I allow distributed as follows, my daughter Elizabeth & Benjamin each to get one hundred dollars, and my son Daniel Wilson to get one hundred and fifty dollars, and the balance that may remain I allow to be divided equally between my wife & my other children.
