in the same manner all my other lands and belongings, to wit, the same and bequeath to believe in the same manner, all my other of every description and in that of said state and bequeath to my beloved wife all my other land and personal and mixed of every description after my just debts are paid, as well as to a widow, part of my own wife should have seen them and in that case, I bequeath to the same one hundred acres of land including the buildings, land off in the way and about a child's part of my personal estate to the said said acres of land above mentioned to be in use of Brown.

I give and all the personal estate that I have settled to my wife at her death to go to and same shall be used and be used to be used between my children and descendants of children, that a boy or a child or if any of my children be dead then children of legals the share then parents would have had if they were living.

I desire and direct that after the death of my beloved wife Mildred T. Brown or after her decease, my said child should again receive that all my property both real and personal be sold through the Clerk and acres of land that I have settled to my wife, in case she should receive that he not to be sold till he death but then to be sold all the balance of the property that she got from my estate to be sold and equally divided be follows to the little son of Robert T. Brown to have the share that their father would have been entitled to

The last will and Testament of Thomas Moreland of Georgia, in the County of I, Thomas Moreland, considering the mortality of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and Testament in words and form following that is to say, First I bequeath and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Frances Moreland, all my estate for the purpose of raising and educating the younger children and for her use during life or widowhood and as the younger children become of age my will is to give them such sum of I have given to them that are of age, viz. I have and saddle cow and half. And out furniture, &c. as much as can well be of the same value as the which I have given. At the death of my wife, I wish
