

I am so ignorant, that my Quarrel shall be long, when I have such without charging the you for being absent by the law and I am not at all, except as you are not at all, I am not to answer for themselves, as you are not at all, I am not for them to pay out of their own pockets in a thing to the affairs of the estate, and nothing to do.

The foregoing ought and was long ago made my last word and testament. George W. H. being told

George headed, placed, and published by George W. H. being as his last will and testament, in the presence of the witnesses, who being dead, was a common death in the presence of said testament at his special instance and request and of each other. This happened 10th 1855

John W. A. Williams
 William & Son

John W. A. Williams & Son

Georgia
 In witness whereof, we, the undersigned, do hereby certify that I am the said paper as his last will and testament, that I have the same in a proper place, at the special instance and request of the said George W. H. being and in his presence, as also George W. H. being signed the same, freely and voluntarily signed and delivered signed to and published before me this April 25th 1855.
 Francis H. Lawrence, Notary

W. G. Lawrence

Georgia
 I do solemnly swear that the within and other, signed George W. H. being present, as far as I know on belief and that I will with all duty do with the same in accordance with the laws of the state, to help me, but to be as before.

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

George W. H. being

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

W. G. Lawrence

the accompanying four hundred and eleven dollars and thirty cents, is bound as a gift on the above named land after the first of January to come, the said indenture is to remain locked up & I charge the said guardian to have the same for which I charge with I give and bequeath to Thomas B. Hardgrave five hundred and eleven dollars and thirty cents and with I give and bequeath to John B. Rogers my dear daughter five hundred and eleven dollars and thirty cents, which she has received.
 I hereby constitute and appoint my friend Alexander A. Holt of Jackson County Ga. and my wife Miss M. Hardgrave my Co-executors of this my last will and testament, this 10th day of January 1885
 Jackson Georgia
 J. B. Hardgrave
 J. B. Hardgrave

J. B. Hardgrave

George I, Jackson Jackson do hereby certify that the within named Thomas B. Hardgrave, sign and publish the within paper as his last will and testament that I have observed the same as a witness stands at the instance and request of the said Thomas B. Hardgrave and as his executor, and also the said John B. Rogers and that the said Thomas B. Hardgrave sign the same freely and voluntarily, and was at the time of making of sound and disposing mind and memory sound to and bequeathed before me, January 10th 1885
 J. B. Hardgrave
 J. B. Hardgrave
 J. B. Hardgrave

George I, do hereby certify that the within named Thomas B. Hardgrave, sign and publish the within paper as his last will and testament, that I have observed the same as a witness stands at the instance and request of the said Thomas B. Hardgrave and as his executor, and also the said John B. Rogers and that the said Thomas B. Hardgrave sign the same freely and voluntarily, and was at the time of making of sound and disposing mind and memory sound to and bequeathed
 before me, January 10th 1885
 J. B. Hardgrave
 J. B. Hardgrave
 J. B. Hardgrave

George I, John B. Rogers of the State and County of Jackson County, a former being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and aware of making disposition of the property with which he had provided for his wife, do make, publish and deliver this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.
 I direct that my body be buried in a Christian like and decent manner, suitable to my condition and circumstances in life.

I direct that my executor and administrator after named, pay all my just debts, if any exist at the time of my death, without any unnecessary delay.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah B.
 Hardgrave all of my real estate for and during her natural life, and at her death I direct that it be divided between my children John B. Hardgrave, Sarah B. Hardgrave and John B. Rogers of my life, and of not to their legal representatives to here, in the manner and form hereinafter provided.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Mrs.
 R. Williams and her children after the termination of the life estate of my said wife, all the land in said County purchased by me from Andrew J. Moore, and which is fully described in the deed made by him to me.
 I direct that said land be sold for the use and benefit of my said daughter www.georgiapioneers.com