

However, for the sake of her son, I have been obliged to pass to northern & the bank and then down a river, long & I hope will not be so long, get being helped with a board across and return to my home.
 So make the following declaration of the property that I have in her furniture has been placed to suit me to my case. at the time of the sale.

that will that all my property both present and real be equally divided between my wife Louisa and three and my children David, Elizabeth, Louisa Jane, Anne, Letitia Louisa Margaret, Jane Eliza & David continuing. We desire to remain together untilt my eldest daughter's consention shall become of age, at what time if he desires any such is that these designated persons be selected to divide the property not otherwise disposed of in the early last will and Testament and he be allowed to receive one sixth part of my estate. The remainder of my property shall be reserved together untilt my daughter Louisa becomes of age or marries and at the happening of either of these events my will is that the remainder of my estate be valued and she receive one sixth part of the remaining estate she leave her then to remain together untilt my last daughter Anne Letitia becomes of age or marries when the remaining part of the estate will be valued as in the case of Anne & Louisa she receive one fifth of each estate then remaining. The balance of the to remain together as before untilt my third daughter Louisa becomes of age or marries when the remaining portion of the estate will be valued as before and she receive an fourth part of my late remaining estate. I do recommend the property to them to be kept together undivided and some day James shall have it all at which time I desire the estate to be sold as above directed and the several and third part of my then estate at the time my youngest son Lewis shall be become of age I desire the same my portion of my property to be equally divided between himself and his brother my wife's daughter. I request to my beloved wife Maria Hawthorn may some place coming of between five and six hundred acres of land her natural life and at her death the same to be sold and the proceeds here to be equally divided between my six children before named.

 I also request to young Whelan a true credit book, saddle & bridle & half as a provision for her husband to myself and family during a period of several years the same to be paid to her upon her journey or upon leaving my family. I do hereby constitute and appoint my wife Maria Hawthorn my lawful executor and may her Isabel & Hawthorn my executor upon the my last will and testament Signed Sealed & delivered in presence of Jas B. Gordon
 James B. Wood
 Wiley Rappet
 James Hawthorn
 3
 3

Georgia - Capt & Secretary John B. Jones
Chambers County Term 1847

Mr. James B. Hurd
We have the pleasure to inform you that we have received the author's copy of your book and are sending it to you by the next mail.

[illegible]

Bryonia cretica & Sedum album from Semenellou by Adolphus Henry 1897 and testament of James Hawthorn expressed leaving her sole and separate property to her daughter, the said Mary, and to her heirs forever. The said James Hawthorn was at the time of his death a married man, and the said Mary was at the time of his death a single woman. The said James Hawthorn was at the time of his death a married man, and the said Mary was at the time of his death a single woman. The said James Hawthorn was at the time of his death a married man, and the said Mary was at the time of his death a single woman.

Wm. B. Court of Ordinary I do solemnly swear that the writing contains the true and correct copy thereof as far as I know or believe and that it will be lawfully presented to him by paying the debt and then the same shall in the said writ as far as he good and chaste will present to him he have charge one and that he will be having forgiveness of all such goods as shall be due me by the London Bank per Wm. B. C.

General Court of Admiralty
January Term 1872

So appearing on the boat, that the principal part of James Hamilton together with the goods and Rowan's trunk had been destroyed by the late burning of the boat there, and it further appearing to the Court by personal inspection and evidence that the foregoing is a copy of the property, and that it is in such case proved.
It is therefore a portion of the goods of the estate of James Hamilton, and by the Court that the foregoing copy is said will together with the evidence thereon be sent the same hereby is established on the part of said deceased and said that the same be now entered of Record and kept of file as such.

James S. Lunt
Ordinary
Recorded January 27th 1882
James S. Lunt
Ordinary

the the names of Ted Hunter & Sanford A Deale of the bounty of Burnett and State of Georgia, being of blood and dipping around and money, and being subject to settle my worldly affairs while I have thought to do so and published this way last Will and testament. Herby leaving all with by me at any time hereafter made. And first I commit my soul to God who gave it and my body I leave to be buried at Harney since that Burnett and my worldly estate I dispose of as follows I want my executor to see to cause all my just debts paid as soon as possible and to selling possible property to I give and bequeath

www.georgiapioneers.com