

Georgia. In the name of God, Amen
I, William A. Smith, of the County and State aforesaid, being lawfully sworn, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original and authentic records of the same, as they are now on file in the office of the Secretary of the State of Georgia.
Witness my hand and seal of office, this 1st day of June, 1864.
Wm. A. Smith, Secy. of State.

After my death I desire that my body be buried by my friends and friends with Washing. Harris, and with the funeral service of the Methodist Episcopal Church held at the family burying ground, near my residence, when some few remains of my venerable father and mother, and other family relatives who lie buried there, and of such goods, property and chattels as God of providence has blessed me with, I hereby give and bequeath, in manner and form following:

Then 1st I will that all my just estate of any and every kind of personal expense shall be paid by my executors hereafter named, and the expenses of settling up my estate, out of my estate not specially given after payment of sufficient for that purpose, but if not sufficient then the necessity to be made out of the property specially bequeathed to my wife and children, each one to bear his or her part pro rata of such disbursements it should exist.

Item Ed. I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Patience L. Jacobs, if she should survive me, my home place where I now live and all the lands of which I am now possessed amounting to some two hundred [illegible]

Slaves. I will not bequeath to my son William A. & his my dear that he shall receive only the same debt, only settle, and so that I have nothing to pay out here, and that is to be returned by him in the division of my estate. I will that his part of the land is to be by him after the division, and he may sell but shall not be sold by him, but is to be divided to his children, who are my grand children. In addition to this I want to have my watch and chain, and I promise, that after the death of my wife, the division of the land shall be paid, and be before fixed by me; that as to my will H. & J. is to take that part, on which duelling road, without now stand, and on the balance upon which my dwelling and outhouses are situated.

Item 4th. I will my daughter Cera S. Jacobs, after the death of my wife one half of the remainder of my estate, except as herein provided, the estate to be to her and her children, should any happen be born to her. And should my said daughter hereafter marry, it is expressly provided in the will, that should she die leaving no children, they and in that case her part of my estate shall fully revert to my estate and belong to my son William H. Jacobs and his children and subject to the same restrictions as imposed and provided in Item 3d in the will. And it is further provided, that in the lifetime of my said daughter after the death of my wife, the same place shall belong to her as appurtenant to me in Item 3d of this will, and to her I will the formerly serving maid and one half to make her equal with my son William H. Jacobs, he having before received a sum 451 I have just told to my husband that you have recently received and State of Illinois of the Washington County will most fully support by the 168 feet school I will send him a copy of the same and have it two children William & 5 years old and have it under subject to the same and have it them & send it to the same and have it I shall of the same and have it friends from the same and have it to be my brother's and have it last with and have it former will be of the same and have it these under my hand and seal the 27th of August 1887 to him, the latter published and obtained in his possession of each and witnessed by me August 24, 1882.

James G. Loring
A. P. Patillo
R. B. 14

The following Articles are ordered to my with this 5th day of August 1791. since this my last will was written my daughter Love has married Andrew Broughton and has born one child. I see my purpose that any and shall be united with my purpose that any of those will disprove if it be 2 years excepting myself be now ready to sell or encumber the same value for the support of herself and children I believe absolutely necessary I am she dies of she should have my children surviving her I should be unable to support wherein one James Deane - the father of said children at his instance and request - off in of sound mind and memory and of such state of reason in a personal and at no time in the Dec. 1871

G. W. Burnett
 L. H. Burnett

Codril 1st That I have given and do hereby bequeath to my said son, James Deane that will and desire as follows: That said son, James Deane, be and is to have by appropiate title of my said daughter and his child, and children lawfully born into her for the following purpose - to wit during the absence of said son, to be that to wit that the property herein bequeathed to be in not married or disposed by said son, daughter or any said daughter and that it be not alienated in whole or in part, nor wholly follow from yearly income thereof and said son or of his child or children to be paid to be appointed trustee by the
 to take immediate control of said property and manage the same until all the children of age are deceased in Codril 2nd

1st That at my said daughter's death said son or of his child or children
 to be paid to be appointed trustee by the
 to take immediate control of said property and
 manage the same until all the children
 of age are deceased in Codril 2nd

Signed, declared and published by William Deane at his last will and testament in the presence of us the subscribers who subscribe our names into in the presence of said father at his instance and request who is of sound and disposing mind and of such state of reason and his presence and is signing in his presence Feb. 28, 1871

Witnessed Feb 10, 1871
 G. W. Burnett
 L. H. Burnett

James Deane of the proper legal age and sound mind and memory and of such state of reason of his own children and that said father calling upon us said trustees to seal and deliver to said father, of record in the County of Lincoln public, of record in the County of Lincoln said property and we ourselves being of full sound mind and of such state of reason and disinterested

Codril 2nd That I have named and do hereby appoint and name as my executor of this my will I desire said son, James Deane, the entire management and control of my said property and the execution of my said will Codril 3rd That I have named and do hereby appoint and name as my executor of this my will
 I desire said son, James Deane, the entire
 management and control of my said property and
 the execution of my said will Codril 4th That I have named and do hereby appoint and name as my executor of this my will

 I desire said son, James Deane, the entire
 management and control of my said property and
 the execution of my said will

W. L. Jacobs

Signed, declared and published by William Deane as his last will and testament in the presence of us the subscribers who