

1890 and Oct. 1891. I gave him some hundred dollars each year at that time.

Frederick Barber

For his board and tuition at the University of Georgia in Athens he paid twenty five dollars with which I lent him
 five.

James H. Barber

For his son James H. Barber for board and tuition at the University of Georgia he paid twenty dollars with which I lent him five.
 When he was married to Miss Jane Barber
 he paid me fifty dollars for her dowry.

Charles Barber

For his daughter Sarah Barber I paid for board and tuition at the University of Georgia twenty dollars with which I lent her five.

Frederick Barber 25. 1891
 James H. Barber 25. 1891

I paid my son John Barber for board
 and tuition at the University of Georgia in Athens he paid twenty five dollars with which I lent him
 five.
 When he was married to Miss Jane Barber
 he paid me fifty dollars for her dowry.
 For his son James H. Barber for board
 and tuition at the University of Georgia he paid twenty dollars with which I lent him five.
 When he was married to Miss Jane Barber
 he paid me fifty dollars for her dowry.

To my son George Barber in June 1891 I gave him one hundred and twenty five dollars with which I lent him
 five.
 When he was married to Miss Jane Barber
 he paid me fifty dollars for her dowry.

To my daughter Emily Barber I gave her
 one hundred dollars in June 1891 with which I lent her five.

To my son John H. Barber I gave him one hundred and twenty five dollars with which I lent him five.
 When he was married to Miss Jane Barber
 he paid me fifty dollars for her dowry.

To my daughter Emily Barber I gave her
 one hundred dollars in June 1891 with
 which I lent her five.
 When she was married to Mr. James Barber
 he paid me fifty dollars for her dowry.