

all of my reasoning for this, and I hope of all those who, with a view to the future, and to stopping the influence of distresses and various influences, and desiring to see a similar movement every where.

Dear Mr. Corbett, and all your Dr. H. Lewis, a pointer of this way to and that, and this the way to J. C. Corbett.

Signed, sealed and published by Justice Kearney as hereunto well and lawfully the Governor of us the said state, in our records kept in the presence of said testator (at his instance and request, and in the presence of said witnesses, and in signing and sealing in our presence and presence of said witnesses.

Received of J. J. White, 1890.
Ordinary.

J. S. Brown
J. D. Chapman
C. S. Brown

Georgia, Lincoln County
I, John H. Clark of said County, State and County County of said and foregoing, hereby certify and solemnly that my last will and testament

[illegible]

Item 2d. A letter very well and tastefully that the woman was sent, and what he thought of her, and the letter the hair, and the some letter for by and hair.

Then I'll leave my will and testament that the same in dispensing of life will be each other in order to keep the whole ~~heart~~ in the society.

It is my will and testament that my executor who I shall appoint, in and after my death shall do as he shall think fit to do in and after my death

Stout
A healthy constitution and efficient nervous system.
A true exponent of this the best will find to suit. Price May 12 1874. J. V. Davis

Signing, sealing, and publishing by joint hands as his act, will and testament, in the presence of us the subscribers who subscribe our names here to at his instance and request, and in each other, as signing our own names and the signing in his presence.
 James D. Davis
 James D. Howell
 Wm. L.

James H. Newell
James McLean
James M. Newell