Sealed I, James S. Lankin Ordinary do hereby certify that the above foregoing is a true copy of the last will of William David Ryd and that the same having been proved in common form on the 27th day of January 1872 by Robert Hays and James S. Lankin, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will, and on the first day of March 1872 at a regular term of the Court of Ordinary the same was admitted to record and that the Ryd named executor in said will allowed to qualify In testimony whereof I the said Ordinary

Last Will and Testament of Henry & Mary

I and my property of every description kept together at the residence and estate of my wife should there be some debt against me then can be paid out of the proceeds of the same, and can have such property sold as the law may best

I also desire that my wife and Mary together with her consent to be given to my son in trust for my dear daughter Mary to take effect when the business hereby now paid to Mary, last girl Mary and her consent not to be subject to the duties and liabilities of her husband but for her life and as long as she at the death of my last daughter last girl Mary and her consent to go to the free City of the same any of the her heirs to go to her husband or the children of them, who may be dead at the death of my wife, I desire the distinguished portion of my property coming to my last daughter to be sold in trust by my last son Mary for the same reason and subject to the same conditions as the first Mary and her consent, and I desire all my land in the same, to be sold to the same wife property, my property when I am dead above, I should any of my last Mary or have their brother, she may give them off such property as she can afford, or better them to see any portion of the same, as a land them as they see may think best at the death of my wife, the rest of my property, except the last Mary girl Mary shall be equally divided among all my children and having property given before to a son
