Second. It is my will & desire that the whole of my property both real & personal, be kept together for the support & maintenance of my wife & the Children now living with me; subject however to the following proviso; that in case my son Absalom should arrive to the age of twenty one before the death of my said wife that then & in that case I will & bequeath to him my negro boy Senborn, & should either of daughters Sarah, Winniford or Nancy marry before the said event namely the death of my wife, that then & in that case I will & bequeath to them as follows, viz, To my daughter Sarah I will & bequeath my negro boy Ben, to my daughter Winniford my negro girl Julia. & to my daughter Nancy I will & bequeath my negro girl Mary - I will & bequeath to my wife my Negro man George during her natural life, with the privilege of lending the said negro to my son Henry & at her death I will & bequeath the said Negro man George to my said son Henry, but should my said son depart this life before my wife, then & in that case I desire that the said negro should be considered with the rest of the property, which at the death of my wife is to be divided among my three smaller children William Caroline & Samuel. I wish it to be distinctly understood that after the above bequests shall have taken place, that then the rest of my property, (with such exceptions as may be herein after named) belongs exclusively to my wife during her natural life, (my three younger children having their support out of the same, & at the death of my ^{said} wife to be equally divided among my three said children William, Caroline, & Samuel. Should either of the negroes which I have bequeathed to my son Absalom or to either of my daughters Sarah, Winniford or Nancy, should depart this life before the time that the said bequests are to take place that then & in that case, I desire that the owner of said deceased negro should come in equally & share & share alike with my three younger children William, Caroline & Samuel.

I devise & give to my son Henry a portion or part of the tract of land whereon now live lying within the following bounds, commencing on a large sweet gum near the Spring, running a South Course, until it intersects the South line of the whole tract, then down the Spring branch until it strikes John Jarvers land, & down his line to Spring Creek.

At the death of my wife I devise & give to my son Absalom the other portion of the above mentioned tract of land, being that portion whereon I now live.

I will & bequeath to my daughter Sarah my sound horse, & to my daughter Winniford I will & bequeath my sound Cote.

I leave my wife Dorothy Jarver Executrix, & my
