

Last Will & Testament of B. F. Summerville
Deceased.

State of Georgia Haralson County.

This September 2nd. 1908.

Know All Men By These Presents

I B. F. Summerville with my own free will and accord deem necessary to make a revokable the condition that my business is in. Knowing the uncertainty of life and the assurity of death.

In case I should die, I make my wife L. L. Summerville, her to have full force of all of my business, In first to to see that all of my debts is paid.

Second. For her to have all power to make deed to any land that I have sold to sue and collect any debt or note that is coming to me so long as she keeps her right mind and live, and remain unmarried, and in case that she should lose her mind or die, then Fannie and Minnie, transact any business and have the same power she would.

L. L. Summerville can buy or sell any part or parts of it anything that I might have, as she thought best, and use any contents for her own ability. In case that she was going through anything extravagantly, any of the heirs could report to the Ordinary and stop her at once.

And at her and my death, Fannie should have lot of land No. 874 1st 4 District Containing 26 acres. And Minnie to have lots of land Nos. 873 & 874 1st 4 District Containing 22 1/2 acres more or less. Said land lies in Haralson County.

Then all of my property be equally divided among all heirs at law. The land is not an equal proportion to what I may have, divide up the remainder to an equal share with the balance.

In case that I should live to wind up my business and divide it up among the heirs, this will should be of no force and effect.

I am here at my home none of my folks is present - know nothing about it. As for my hand and seal.
