Will of Reuben Holcombe.

State of Georgia To Reuben H. Holcombe Haralson County, and Jesse Bell.

I will set forth here what I want you to do for N. E. H. Holcombe after I am dead. I want you to take in hand what money & notes and collect for her support what the land lacks of something in support & keep the money out on interest & so that the interest is paid up every year and so that she has a plenty to keep her from want as long as she lives, or if she should marry to an other man then she must look to him for support. And this writing will be null and void and you will collect and divide equal among my heirs and I want you to let Betsey Ann have what there is in the house for her to use while she lives in less there is more than she wants to keep, then divide it or sell it suits best, if she should marry an other man or move away then these writings will be null and void it will be best to have a memorandum taken of what I leave here so it will be kept together what N. E. H. Holcombe has of her own after her death I want Fannie Buntin to have it, and you see that she gets it, and don't divide the money out till after Betsey Ann is dead for fear she might need it all.

After her death divide among the heirs and you take your part, & then divide the balance of the Estate see to the renting the land, see that Betsy Ann gets the rent & what it lacks of her support & pay it out of the money for I don't want her to want and not get it and keep the money & not till after Betsy's death & if any is left then divide it and she don't live by herself & see that she has some person to live with her This November 20th 1890.

if there is anything left out you can tell by what I have wrote how to do about it by what I have wrote I hope it will be agreeable with all farewell
