

I Ambrose Hunkley of the said State and County, of over and being of sound mind and memory make and publish this as my last will and testament—

Item 1st— I will and direct that all my just debts be paid including expenses of last sickness and burial and such monument to be erected over me, as my Estate may authorize, to be paid of by my Executor—

Item 2nd— Wherein my Estate is now somewhat Embarrassed, and I may not have much for my family, but am anxious to deal justly by them all, and whereas my wife M. O. Hunkley has a small Estate in her own right I do therefore Will and bequeath to my said wife one fifteenth part of my whole Estate after payment of debts as aforesaid to be paid to her as soon as my Executor can do it, the same to be absolutely, and for ever in lieu of and instead of any right of Dower on the part of my said wife being unwilling to embarrass my Estate or the Sale thereof, by any right in claim of Dower in the same

I wills and bequeath to my youngest daughter Ida A. Hunkley the chain of my present wife, my gold watch now usually worn by my wife, this in consideration that she is still very young, and this is intended as a specific legacy, and that much more than an equal share with my other children—

I wills and bequeath Equally to all my children as follows, that is to say, after the payment of the foregoing specific legacy, and after paying my wife the said fifteenth part of my Estate as aforesaid, which is in lieu of Dower, I give to my said children to wit Annie E. Riddle, Carrie V. Hamilton, Emma G. Hunkley and Ida A. Hunkley, all the balance of my Estate of every description whatever, subject to the limitations and qualifications herein after expressed, that whereas I am the Executor of the Estate of my deceased son William A. Hunkley, and have in my hands legacies belonging to my said children from said Estate now this bequest is given to each, on condition that each shall discharge me and my Estate from the payment of said legacies, and further that said Annie E. Riddle has received her share of the Estate of the said William A. Hunkley, and in the division of my Estate the said Annie E. is to receive that left them the others—

I will and direct that the portions of my Estate above given to Annie E. Riddle be given to John Hamilton in trust, to hold for the sole use and benefit for the said Annie during her natural life, the use, interest and profits thereof, be paid to her by the said trustee, and the said interest and proceeds when received, to be applied by her for her own support and the support of her family, in any way she may direct, and at the death of the said Annie E. the Executor of the Estate to go to the children of the said Annie E. (or to the legal representation of any that may be dead) equally, to be divided between them. And it is further directed that the said trustee shall have power upon the written applications of the said Annie E. to sell said property at any time and to reinvest the proceeds in other property, always however taking fully with the same rights, limitations, & interest, as are herein prescribed and expressed, and should said trustee die or be removed, the said Annie E. has the power by writing under her hand and seal to appoint in other trustee, and should the said Annie E. have no living children at the time of her death, she may by will dispose of the same as she may seem fit.

Item 6th - It is my will that the bequest herein made to my wife of one fifteenth part of my Estate, and which is in lieu of Dower, shall go to her for and during her natural life, the interest issues and profits to be enjoyed by her in such manner as she may desire; the principal to remain in the hands of my Executor, or be paid to her upon her giving bond for it, for the coming at her death to the Remaindermen. And at her death I will the said principal to my said children to be equally divided between them.

Item 7th - In the event that any of my said children should die without child or children living at the time of such death then the portion given to such one to go to and be divided equally among the surviving ones, or their representatives.

Item 8th - I hereby appoint John H. Hamilton, Executor of this Will.
In testimony whereof I do hereunto set my hand, hereby publishing and declaring the same to be my will.

Signed and published in the presence of my subscribing witnesses, this 28th day of Decr, 1866.

A. M. Seter
B. H. Crawford
W. S. Redham