Last Will and Testament of Jesse Gunn Dec'd Record.

In the name of God - Amen,

I Jesse Gunn of the County of Harris State of Georgia do make at this time, my last Will and Testament, my body being feeble, but my mind sound

Item 1st I will and desire all my just debts paid as soon after my decease as practicable

Item 2nd I give and bequeath to my beloved Sister Sally B. Bradsher wife of Vincent Bradsher of Caswell County State of North Carolina, for and during her natural life, and for her sole and separate use, free from the debts, contracts and liabilities of her husband, all my Estate both real and personal, and the remainder, after the termination of the life estate herein created in said Sally B. Bradsher, I give and bequeath to the grand children of said Sally B. Bradsher now in being, and such as may be born of the children of said Sally B. to be divided equally amongst them share and share alike, and should any of said grand children die without child husband or wife surviving them, then their shares are to be equally divided share and share alike between the surviving grand children of said Sally B.

Item 3rd It is my intention to bring home the body of my son Theophilus J. Gunn who died in the service of his Country in the State of Kentucky; should I die without doing so, then it is my will that enough of my Estate be appropriated to that purpose

Signed Sealed published and declared in the presence of the witnesses whose names are hereto subscribed.
