

Last will and Testament of Jesse T. Kimbrough Dec 270

Georgia Harris County } To all whom it may concern
 This is to certify that while we the undersigned witnesses were attending to the wants of Jesse T. Kimbrough on Thursday December the 3rd 1874 at his Mother's residence near Cataula Ga; about 6 o'clock P.M. Jesse T. Kimbrough being confident that he would live but a short time and as he stated was anxious to settle his worldly affairs while he had strength and as we believe was of sound disposing mind, did then and there call for us to assemble around his bed and requested that each and all of us should bear witness to what he might say, and without any influence upon the part of any one as far as we know, said, That his will and anxiety was that his mother Mrs. Francis A. Minor should have and hold his entire Estate both Personal and Real property and he wanted her to have to own and control this property as hers and to dispose of the same as she might in the future desire.

Signed Sealed and declared by us to be the verbal will of Jesse T. Kimbrough late decedent of Harris County, Georgia, in witness where of and in presence of each other we have this day set our hands and seals this Dec 26th 1874
