

11th. I desire and direct that at the death of my wife, all my real estate be sold at public outcry, and the proceeds, after paying all expenses, be equally divided between all my children, except John C. & William T. they having received their portions in items Sixth & Fifth.

12th. I desire that at the death of my wife, all my remaining property wherever, and whatever it may be, except the provision of the latter clause of Item 3^d be sold as directed in Item 7th, and equally divided between all my children.

13th. I constitute and appoint my worthy friend, ^{& nephew} Thomas G. Barnett ~~my~~ Executor by my last Will and Testament, this February 16th 1867. Signed, sealed, declared and published by William Griffin as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us the subscribers, who subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the Testator, and of each other, this February 16th 1867.

John M. Florence
James A. McGiboney
S. H. Griffin

The above will proved in common form of Law, by the oath of James A. McGiboney one of the subscribing Witnesses to the same on the 2nd day of November 1868, and Thomas G. Barnett qualified as Executor, and the Will ordered and admitted to Record.

E. M. Hawn, Ordinar.

Georgia
Henry County
In the name of God, Amen:
I, Emily Barnett do make this my last Will and Testament, revoking all others at any time heretofore made by me.

I desire that my body be buried in a Christian-like manner, and my soul I commit to God who gave it, trusting as I do in the merits of our common Lord & Savior, Jesus Christ.

2nd. I bequeath to my son, J. Rice the place whereon I now live, it being three hundred acres of land more or less, with its members and appurtenances, known as one hundred & eighty ⁽¹⁸⁰⁾ acres, more or less of lot No 135, and One hundred and fourteen acres more or less of lot No 154, the same being the folgee devised to me by Honor Chukoctiles. Trustee & Co. in the South District of Henry Co. Ga. the bequest subject, this condition that James R. Bennett my husband is to have said land, and enjoy its use and profits, as long as he may live, free from any legal liability or equitable restriction. Said interest or rights of said Rice, not to attach or take effect, until after the death of myself or said James R. Bennett. And if, from necessity, misfortune, or otherwise it becomes necessary to dispose of any of said land, for the support of my said husband James R. Bennett, my Executor hereinafter mentioned is hereby clothed with power—Carte blanche—to that effect, to sell and dispose of the same. The fifteen acres cornering above land bought from C. W. Sumner, accompanying this bequest, and said Rice must pay any balance of purchase money that may be due. The above bequest to said Rice is conditioned thus strictly: Said Rice, who is now with ~~us~~ me and my husband is to remain, and give us and the land mentioned with its annuall prop., that attention ^{and care} which our age requires: If not, this ~~will~~ ^{will} as to him does not take effect no more than if his name was not mentioned.

The third (3^d) line from bottom on 1st Page, erased before signing.

3^d I constitute and appoint Geo. M. Nolan as my Executor to this my last Will and Testament

Signed, sealed, and published and declared as the last Will and Testament in the presence of the undersigned. March 6th 1869.

W. J. Read
John J. Boulinson
C. J. Perryman

Emily Bennett.

The above Will signed in common form of law of the oath of John J. Boulinson, one of the subscribing witnesses to my paper, on the 16th day of April 1869, and John M. Maxwell, Administrator qualified as Administrator cum testamento annexo, and the Will was ordered and admitted to Record.

Geo. M. Nolan
Ordinary.
