Geo. M. Nolan. Ordinary.

State of Georgia }
Henry County } In the name of God. Amen.

I, John Moore, being of sound disposing mind & memory, and knowing that all men must die, do make this my last will & testament.

I will my soul to God who gave it & my body to the dust from whence it came, to be buried in a decent Christian like manner.

I will that my executor pay all my just legal debts so soon as they can, without unnecessary damage to my Estate.

I will & bequeath to my beloved wife, Sarah Moore, the following property, to wit: The plantation that I now live on, containing three hundred and sixty acres of land more or less, and lying in the eighth district of said Henry County.

Also the following negroes, to wit: Narcissa a woman about thirty years old, her child Rena. Abram a boy about seventeen years old, and Ann a woman about forty years old, together with their increase, to have & to hold for her said proper use, benefit & behoof, for & during the term of her natural life & after her widowhood, and after death or marriage, said property to be equally divided amongst my four children hereinafter named, each one share & to them in the same way that I give them other property - subject to the same restrictions & limitations. I also will & bequeath to my wife Sarah Moore, such portion of my household & kitchen furniture as she may think necessary for her comfort and convenience, she being the judge. Also one yoke of oxen, & provisions from stock provisions, as I may have on hand, also two mules, such as she may choose and my two horse waggon & gear. Also cows & calves, such as she may choose and five head of sheep such as she may choose, also such of my stock of hogs as she may choose, also one buggy & harness, also such plantation tools as she may need, & to bequeath to my daughter Mary Ann Lyons, the following property to wit: Delcy a woman about thirty years old, Lucinda a girl eight years old, and Fanny, a girl about five years old, together with their increase, for her own use & benefit during her natural life, & after her death, said property to go to her children.

I will & bequeath to my beloved son John L. Moore, the following negroes, to wit:

George a boy about fourteen years old, George a boy about nine years old, and Fanny, a girl about two years old, to have & to hold to him his heirs forever

I will & bequeath to my beloved son Oliver W. Moore, the following property to wit: Perry a boy about twelve years old, and Jacob a boy about three years old & five hundred dollars in money to be paid him out of my Estate, to have & to hold to him his heirs forever.

I will & bequeath to my beloved daughter Susan Wise, the following property to wit: Ella a girl about thirteen years old, Lucy a girl about eleven years old, and Minny a girl about five years old - together with their increase to have & to hold for her own proper use, benefit & behoof for the term of her natural life & at her death, said property to go to her children.

I will that all my property not heretofore disposed of, in this my last will & testament, be disposed of by sale, & the proceeds thereof, together with all the money, & notes I may have on hand after complying with the requisitions of the foregoing items, be equally divided between my beloved wife Sarah

Moore, and my daughter Mary Ann Lyons, my son John L. Moore, and Oliver

W. Moore, & my daughter Susan Wise, equally.

I constitute & appoint my beloved wife Sarah Moore, & my son Oliver W.

Moore, my executors to execute & carry out this my last will & testa-

Signed, sealed, published, & declared, on this the 3rd day of July 1869
