In the name of God, Amen: I, Titmow Wesley of said state and county, being of advanced age, and knowing I must shortly depart from this life, deem it right and proper both as respects myself and family that I should make a disposition of the property with which I am blessed, I therefore make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others heretofore made by me.

Item 1st I wish after my decease, that my body may be buried after the fashion of the righteous, without show or ostentation.

Item 2nd I wish all my just debts, if any to be paid out of my effects.

Item 3rd After my just debts are paid, I wish my beloved wife Mary to have the balance of my effects, both real & personal, of every description whatever, to hold, to use and to live upon, during her natural life, & after her decease, to be equally divided among my children and grand children as shall be hereinafter provided.

Item 4th I wish each of my surviving children, Elitha Price, Redden and Mary Derrick, or their heirs to have a portion in their own rights & persons, that is one fifth part to each representative.

Item 5th I wish the children of my deceased daughter Editha Knight to have one equal portion (that is one fifth) of my Estate.

Item 6th I wish my daughter Elizabeth Dorcas, or her heirs to have an in equal portions (one fifth) of my estate, to be appropriated as follows, viz. I wish my Executor to appropriate his portion, (one fifth) to purchasing a piece of land (if ever so small) in some suitable locality; and have for her and her children, and hold the same in trust for her & their special uses benefit, and by no means to suffer it to fall into the hands of Jeremiah Downs her husband, except so much as he may eat of when he comes to the table.

Now 7th. I hereby constitute and appoint my son-in-law James W. Derick Executor to this my last Will and Testament this April 10th 1861.
