

In the name of God Amen

Knowing that all men hath to die and finding myself in a low state of health but of sound mind. I make this my last will and Testament I do bequeath all my property to be managed by my beloved wife Margaret Fullerton during her life time or till the youngest child Thomas comes of age and it shall be Margaret Fullerton's right and privilege to give my sons John & Thomas one year schooling also to give the said sons one horse and saddle & bridle to each of them to be worth one hundred dollars and to give them each a suit of clothes worth forty or fifty dollars if they remain under their mother care during her life or till they be come of age there shall be an equal division among my beloved wife & children I will that the above mentioned articles shall be reserve for my sons if the death of their mother should cause a division before they get them I will and appoint William Nagland John Mc Starr my lawful executors

Samuel Gray
Christian Joshua Elder
modk

Thomas Fullerton

Georgia Court of Ordinary July Term 1838. Into open court Henry County personally came Samuel Gray & Joshua Elder who being duly sworn say that they saw Thomas Fullerton sign seal publish & declare the within writing to be and contain his last will & Testament that at the time thereof he was of sound mind & disposing memory and executed the same without compulsion and that they signed the same as witness persons at his request in his presence and the presence of each others sworn to & subscribed in open court this 2nd July 1838

Joshua Elder
modk
Samuel Gray

Georgia Court of Ordinary July Term 1838. Into open court Henry County personally came John Mc Starr and William Gray who being duly sworn say that this writing contains the true last will & Testament of the within named Thomas Fullerton as far as they know or believe and that they will well and truly execute the same by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in said will as far as his goods & chattels will thereunto extend and the law charge there and that they will make a true & perfect & perfect inventory of all such goods & chattels. Sworn to and subscribed in open court this 2nd July 1838

John Mc Starr
William Gray