

State of Georgia, in the name of God Almighty Henry County 3 I William Brown of the county and State aforesaid being of an advanced in years and calling to mind that it is appointed for all men alike to die being at this time of sound mind and memory and knowing from the course of nature that the remaining years of my life cannot be many, do dispose of such worldly estate as it has pleased the Lord to bestow me with in the following manner, that is to say - First of all I recommend my soul to God who gave it and my body to be buried in a Christian like manner by my executors hereinafter named

Item 2nd I will that all my just debts be paid in the first place and the amount thereof deducted from my estate

Item 3rd I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Frances Hoooten eighty dollars in addition to what I have heretofore given her to make her equal to what I have given my son James Brown

Item 4th I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Jane Grant two cows and calves, one bed, bedding & furniture ten dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture in such articles as she may choose (to be delivered to her at such times as her mother may think proper) and eighty dollars in money - to make her equal with the others

Item 5th I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Carmichael eighty dollars to make her equal with the others

Item 6th I give and bequeath to my son John Brown twenty dollars which I think will make him equal with the others

Item 6th I give and bequeath to my daughter Anna Amanda Johnston wife of Luke Johnston fifty dollars

Item 7th I give and bequeath to my daughter Margaret Meek wife of Moses Meek five dollars

Item 8th the balance of my estate I will to be divided as follows to wit to Abby Johnston, my grand daughter and daughter of Luke Johnston one fourth of what would be an equal share with the rest of my children that is one fourth of one seventh portion and should she die without issue then that portion to belong to Jane Grant - To the lawful children that are now born and those that may be hereafter born of my Daughter Margaret Meek to be equally divided among them one half of one seventh part and the remainder to be equally divided between my sons James Brown and John Brown and my daughters Sarah Carmichael, Frances Hoooten and Jane Grant and should I am grant die without issue then her portion as well as that of Mary Johnston in case it should devide to her - to revert back to my estate and be equally divided between James and John Brown's portions James and Francis Hooten

Item 9th My will is that my beloved wife Margaret Brown have an estate for life in all my property both real and personal
- at which she may use and enjoy as she pleases during her lifetime but none of it is to be sold by her or any one else for the payment of any debts contracted after my death unless my live stock should increase so as to be more than is necessary for her consumption and other uses in which case she may at her option sell and dispose of such surplus as she may think proper for her comfort and support And at the death of my wife then the gifts and bequests to my children and grand children aforesaid are to be taken effect and to be put into execution

Item 10th And lastly my will is that my rights be divided among
- amongst my children according to appraised Value so as to keep them in the family that is between James Brown John Brown Sarah Larmichael, Francis Hooten, and Jane Grant and such apportionment to be counted as a part of their shares and the portions hereby bequeathed to the children of my daughter Margaret shall I wish to remain in the hands of my executors or some trustee or guardian other than their father until they nearly arrive to full age or marry & then paid over to them that is to each his or her portion of it as they arre
- ed at full age or marry - and I hereby appoint my son-in-law James Larmichael and my son James Brown
- as my executors to execute this my last will and testa
- ment hereby revoking all former wills heretofore made by me - In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of June in the year of our Lord 1838
