Georgia — I, Robert Venable, being in a low state of health Jackson County, believe it to be my duty to close my temporal Concerns — I therefore Ordain and appoint James M. Cunningham and Sabilla Venable, my wife, my lawful Executors —

I give and bequeath to, my beloved wife all of the plantation wherein we now live, together with all the stock and Farming utensils thereon, with one bed & furniture, together with my Grey Horse Tom, & bay filly Mann, together with my other Farm wherein Henry Mann now lives — Also my Negro woman Rachel and her son Andy — all of which she is to have the use of during her widow-hood, this for the special use of herself & family — I further will that at the end of the year eighteen hundred and thirty two, my Negro Mann, Bob, my Negro woman Polly and her two Children Bin & Mabel, together with my lot of Land lying near Sainville in Hall County all be sold at public outcry, or at the best private Sale, my aforesaid Executors can procure — and that the money accruing, from said Sale, be lent at interest, if it can so be done in good hands, until my Children become of age, and as they do arrive of age that a Negro be purchased, such a one as can be bought with their portion of the money — and that their portion to be given to them — The rest of my bequest to be at my wife's disposal to be distributed amongst the Children when she may think proper.

I further will that all of my debts be collected, and the other portions of my property herein not mentioned
