I Elizabeth Cunningham of the County of Jackson, State of Georgia knowing that it is appointed to all people to die have thought proper being very old but of perfect mind & right judgement to make this my last will disposing of all my property in the following manner First, reserving to my self all the right to or in any wise pertaining to all my property during my natural life to be thereby comfortably & decently supported during my natural life. Then to be decently buried Secondly, Then after my death that is my Will that all my property not used for my support & burial shall be equally divided between my three children now living that is to say, my son James Cunningham, my son Joseph T. Cunningham & my daughter Mary Doss that is to say Negroes, land, house hold & kitchen furniture & house hold goods &c that is to say Sarah a Negro woman, Anna a Woman, Ma-ka a woman & the two children &c that is to say during my natural life, and my stock of every kind shall be divided between my three above named children that is to say my son James Cunningham, my son Joseph T. Cunningham & my daughter Mary Doss equally It is my will that all the above named property Negro, stock, house hold & kitchen furniture &c shall be equally divided between my two sons & the daughter as above named & also a lot of land which I own in original Cherokee County now Floyd County, this section & twenty fourth section known & being marked by the plan of said district by number two hundred & sixty three in said district which lot of land was drawn by me and granted to me which is or has been encumbered ^{with} an Indian improvement It is my will also that the above lot of land shall be sold, the money after the sale be equally divided between my three children to wit my son James Cunningham, my son Joseph T. Cunningham my daughter Dorcas which lot of land I am told I have given abroad or died, that is to say a number two hundred & thirty, then in the third section twenty fourth district in real Cherokee County, or signed some piece of writing or pieces of writing to John my grand son, whatever piece or pieces of writing I may have had signed was obtained without consideration & it was not my will to do so at any had then in my right mind if I did it at all, about the time they told me sign some papers to John Dorcas I was in much trouble about the loss of son Andrew Cunningham who had died a few days before, about 11th of May 1834 he died, my son Andrew Cunningham had lived with me, & taken care of me for many years, & for some considerable time after death, I have but little knowledge what I did & I do consider any paper I might have signed at that time to be fraudulently obtained from me, as to to the above described lot of land, or to any person for any of my negroes or any property which I have, or might have so fraudulently as I did or signed away is not my will, nor ever was to dispose of my property in any other than to divide equally between my three surviving the death of my son Andrew Cunningham that is to say my son James Cunningham, my son Joseph T. Cunningham daughter Mary Dorcas, it is my will that all the very much bond, deed, or be-sale if any, shall be null & void of no effect, & if there is any such paper The hands of any person or persons it is my will that they deliver them up that I shall have the pleasure to destroy them as I do hereby declare this to be last will & testament It is further my will that all the property or money willed to my daughter Mary Dorcas after her death, her having the property after death & enjoying it during her natural life then shall be divided between daughter Dorcas three daughters equally that is to say my daughter Dorcas having the property or money given up to her at my death this is ing it during her natural life, & then to be given exclusively to her three daughters Elizabeth, Jane & Sarah at her death & I do hereby appoint Edward Story Joseph T. Cunningham to be my executors to transact my business as they may think best or most advantageous for those who have made my Executors in the above will the 9th day of June 1835
