In the name of God Amen, I John Carmichael of the State Georgia I declare unto being in a very low state of health of body but of perfect mind & memory thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make & publish this my last will & testament, that is to say principally & first of all I give & recommend my soul into the hands of almighty God that give it & my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executor nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power power of God, And as touching such worldly estate wherewith It has pleased God to bless me with in this life I give & dispose of the same in the following manner & form. First I give & bequeath to my grandson John Carmichael Junr. Son of Duncan Carmichael the sum of one hundred dollars of good & lawful money of this State to be raised & levied out of my estate, at the age of twenty one provided he should live to that age, And if not the money to be equally divided between the rest of the lawful heirs. If Duncan Carmichael should not come nor none of his heirs & make a partition for his part of my estate before his son the above named John Carmichael Junr. comes of age my executor is authorized to pay the said Duncan part to his son John Carmichael Junr. & his sister my daughter Sarah Stiles to take a share of my house & the appurtenances, My will further is that all my estate real & personal shall be sold at the discretion of my executor John Carmichael, Whom I appoint my whole & sole executor of this and

Last will & Testament, And all the money arising from the sale, shall be equally divided between my lawfull heirs And I do hereby utterly disallow & revoke & disannul all & every other former Wills & Testaments by me in any wise before named Ratifying & confirming this & no other to be my last will & Testament, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & twenty two, August the twenty ninth day & sealed in the presence of
