

Georgia } I John Winters of the County & State aforesaid Jackson County } being weak in body but of perfect mind & memory do make this my last will & testament, to wit, I bequeath my soul to a merciful God who gave it - in some small hope of a resurrection hereafter.

I give to my dear wife Charity Winters all my worldly effects blessing her natural life & widowhood consisting of eight negroes, to wit - Amy a woman & her daughter Martha about seven years old, Chester, a man & Charlotte a molatto woman, ^{off one by Samuel Patten} her son called John, untill he arrives at twenty one years of age in his will which will devise & comply with four hundred thirty acres of land in Gretna County, not yet granted N.º 87, 95th District & about two hundred fifty acres where I now live together with my stock of all kinds including the legacy coming to us by her father's estate, In the event of her not marrying she is at liberty to give her children such pieces of property as she may think proper as they advance in years, two other negroes she & her daughter Rebecca now in the possession of Stephen Dale. And lastly I do constitute & appoint my said wife Charity and her son William P. Winters on complying with the former conditions of this will my Executors to this my last will & testament Given under my hand & seal this day of September 1829
