On Tuesday the 7th of this Instant the last-will of Nathaniel Sedg as it respects a verbal will, I Peter A. Maddux was sent for on the evening of the 7th & conversed with said Sedg on the subject of his will & he the said Sedg informed me that he wished me to write his will, he also informed me that he wished his wife Lucy Sedg, & James & the Sedg his son his executors, he wished at death of his property that his will be sufficient to pay all his just debts the balance to remain with his family for a support & to be divided amongst them equally at a proper time as his executors and friends think right. He Nathaniel Shobwell & Wm Sedg agree on the above statement.
Edw Adams Clerk before me

Personally came into open court Phe. A. Maddux & Wm Sedg to Nathaniel Shobwell & Thomas duty sworn said that the within writing contains the true nonexecutive will of Nathaniel Sedg excepted to these respondents but a few minutes before his death. They further say that they believe that he was of sound mind when he signed said words sworn to in open court
