

State of Georgia, in the name of God amen Jackson County, I Polly Craft of the County Clark 13 & the aforesaid being of sound mind & disposing memory in view of the certainty of death, do make & appoint this to be my last will & testament.
 Item I do wish all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid.
 Item I do will & bequeath all my property - real & personal whether the same be in possession or in action & every right of property which I may have at my death or which my afterwards I stand or accrue to me, of whatever nature it may be, to my daughters, Hannah Craft and Rebecca Craft - to them & their heirs in fee simple, it being such that my two daughters shall have every thing I may own of every kind & nature, and if either of my said daughters should die before me, I then desire the survivor of the two to have all that would have gone to the deceased one.

I appoint my daughters Hannah Craft & Rebecca Craft, Executors of my last will, with full power to dispose of every thing in any manner they may see fit.
 In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal, this 17th day of November 1846

Signed, sealed, acknowledged Polly & Craft published in presence of us, who saw the testator sign who signed in her presence & in presence of each other

Stephen Jackson
 Daniel G. Locklin
 Annie Craft

Georgia, Court of Ordinary, March Term 1860 Jackson County, The last will & testament of Polly Craft being in court & pronounced for probate in common form & proven by the oath of Stephen Jackson who being sworn, deposes that he saw Polly Craft the testator sign, seal, publish & declare the foregoing writing to be her last will & testament & that he with Daniel G. Locklin & Annie Craft, subscribed the same as witnesses, in the presence of each other & the testator & at her request & I believe she was at the time of sound mind & disposing memory. Sworn to and subscribed in open court, 5th March 1860.
 Stephen Jackson

Attest: Thompson Ordinary

Recorded 6th March 1860
 Attest: Thompson Ord