

Georgia I David Adams of the County and State aforesaid being of Jasper County sound and disposing mind do make this my last Will and Testament as follows.

Item 1st. It is my will that all my just and lawful debts be paid.

Item 2^d. I give bequeath and devise unto my beloved wife Betsey Adams eight negroes, to wit Aggo a woman, Tener a woman & her two sons Hampton & Jack both children, Cynthia a girl, Shadrach a man, Gabriel a man, Peter a boy and all their future increase the above named negroes I give and bequeath to her and her heirs forever to be at her own disposal. I likewise give to my wife all the household and kitchen furniture of all kinds and descriptions all the stock of horses, cattle hogs and sheep and all the plantation tools of every description including waggon carts and including all the crop except the Cotton which must go for the discharge of my debts. I also give bequeath and devise to my wife the tract of land on which I now live containing two hundred two and a half acres together with the improvements also a tract of land lying between the one on which I now live and William Chalks land where he now lives, containing two hundred two and a half acres, also one hundred acres of land adjoining the tract I now live on on the South East side also five acres of land on Falling Creek including my grist and saw mills and joining the last mentioned hundred acres all the above mentioned land I give her and her heirs forever I also give and devise to her and her heirs forever all my other lands not heretofore mentioned except such as I shall devise differently hereafter in this my last Will and Testament.

Item 3^r. I give bequeath and devise to the lawful children of my son Caleb P. Adams and to such as he may have hereafter the tract or parcels of land on which his the said Caleb now lives it being the land I purchased of Jonathan Phillips I also give to the said children a small plantation in the bend of the Comalgee River back of Mr. Garrison's land. I also give and devise to said children one tract of land adjoining corner wise the one on which the said Caleb P. Adams now lives containing two hundred two and one half acres it being the land I purchased of George Colvin the above lands I devise to the aforesaid children and to their heirs forever the said lands ought to be kept together.

Agga a woman, Teaser a woman & her two sons Hampton & Jack both children, Cynthia a girl, Shadrach a man, Gabriel a man, Ben a boy and all their future increase; the above named negroes I give and bequeath to her and her heirs forever to be at her own disposal. I likewise give to my wife all the household and kitchen furniture of all kinds and descriptions all the stock of horses, cattle hogs and sheep and all the plantation tools of every? description including waggon carts and including all the crop except the cotton which must go for the discharge of my debts. I also give bequeath and devise to my wife the tract of land on which I now live containing two hundred two and a half acres together with the improvements also a tract of land lying between the one on which I now live and William Chucks land where he now lives, containing two hundred two and a half acres, also one hundred acres of land adjoining the tract I now live on, on the South East side also five acres of land on Falling Creek including my grist and saw mills and joining the last mentioned hundred acres all the above mentioned land I give her and her heirs forever.
I also give and devise to her and her heirs forever all my other lands not heretofore mentioned except such as I shall devise differently hereafter in this my last will and testament.

Item 3rd. I give bequeath and devise to the lawful children of my son Caleb B.
Adams and to such as he may have hereafter the tract or parcels of land on which he the said Caleb now lives it being the land I purchased of Jonathan Phillips.
I also give to the said children a small addition in the kind of the Comely Run back of Mr. Team's land. I also give and devise to said children one tract of land adjoining corner with the one on which the said Caleb B. now lives containing two hundred two and one half acres it being the land I purchased of George Brown the above lands I devise to the aforesaid children and to their heirs forever the said lands are to be kept together and remain unsold until the youngest child of the said Caleb B. comes of age or marries before any division there of is to take place - but my Executors are privileged to sell them if they think proper for the purpose of purchasing a settlement that they may think will suit said children.

Item 4th. I give and devise to my son George Fifty Dollars and will make arrangements Returns Inventories Estates, etc., Book 10, 1830-1839

1649

Item 5^d. I give and bequeath to my son Jefferson Fifty Dollars.

Item 6^d. I will and devise that the lot of land I now lying in Talbot County, also the land lot and Gold lot I have drawn in the Cherokee Country be sold by my executors for the benefit of my heirs.

Item 7^d. I will to each of my Daughters Mary & Rebecca a tolerable good horse, with saddle and bridle for Rebecca.

Item 8^d. I leave with my negroes now in my possession who are not mentioned by name as given to my wife for the purpose of enabling her to pay all my just debts and funeral when they are all paid it is my will that the remainder of my negroes not disposed of to my wife or Grand son David Adams should be put into seven lots to be as equal in value as possible, both at the time, present and future increased & diminution in value - it is also my will that all the negroes I have loans to my children with their increase be returned at the general division for a fair distribution between all but it is to be understood, that those negroes (and their increase now loans are to be so apportioned as to fall to the lot of those of my children who have them in possession provided they wish it) & the lot that may fall to my son Jonathan Adams I give and bequeath to him and his heirs forever, and the lot that may fall to my son the children of my son Caleb B Adams I give and bequeath to them and such as he may have hereafter to them and their heirs forever. My wife Patsy Adams is authorized by this Will and so devise that she draw two shares of the seven lots of negroes which I bequeath to her and her heirs forever.

Item 9^d. I lend to each of my daughters such lots of negroes as may fall to them with their increase their life time after their deaths their several lots are bequeathed to their children, and should either of my daughters die without living issue the negroes they have received from my Estate shall revert to my living children. It is also my will that no property or its increased my daughters have received of me or which they may receive hereafter shall be subject to the debts of their husband or husbands not even their life time interests (and my Executors are hereby appointed Trustees in whom the legal Estates are to be placed) ~~to be held in trust~~ for my saddle and bridle for Rebecca -

Item 8th I leave also my negroes now in my possession who are not mentioned by name as given to my wife for the purpose of enabling her to pay all my just debts and further when they are all paid it is my will that the remainder of my negroes not disposed of to my wife or Grand son David Adams should be put into seven lots to be as equal in value as possible, both at the time present and future increased & diminished in value - it is also my will that all the negroes I have leaves to my children with their increase be returned at the general division for a fair distribution between all but it is to be understood, that those negroes (and their increase now leaves are to be so apportioned as to fall to the lot of those of my children who have them in possession provided they wish it & the lot that may fall to my son Jonathan Adams I give and bequeath to him and his heirs forever and the lot that ... and fall to my son the children of my son Caleb B Adams I give and bequeath to them and each as he may have hereafter to them and their heirs forever. My wife Patsy Adams is authorized by this Will and so devise that she draw two shares of the ~~seven~~ lots of negroes which I bequeath to her and her heirs forever.

Item 9th I leave to each of my daughters such lots of negroes as may fall to them with their increase their life time after their deaths their several lots are bequeathed to their children, and should either of my daughters die without living issue the negroes they have received from my Estate shall revert to my living children It is also my will that no property or its increase my daughters have received of me or which they may receive hereafter shall be subject to the debts of their husband or husbands not over their life time interests (and my Executors are) hereby appointed Trustees in whom the legal Estates are to rest that they may prevent such event

Item 10th I will that my daughter Rebecca be educated out of my Estate and not out of her own pocket - I will further that the negroes before dispose of and heretofore mentioned for my daughters Nancy & Rebecca remain my wife until they severally marry when they are to take them under the restrictions before mentioned in the 9th Item of this Will.

Item 11th. It is my will that my negro man Tom who is now the age of fifty years of age should not be divided amongst my legatees as part of my property, but that my Executors permit him to exercise his freedom so far as is compatible with the Laws of the State & if necessary petition the Legislature for emancipation.

Item 11th. It is my will further that my negro man Lewis & Anna his wife and their children be so apportioned as to fall to the lot of my son Jonathan Adams in the general distribution and further rather than sacrifice any portion of my Estate my Executors are authorized to borrow money on the faith of the same to discharge the debts provided it is judicious to do so.

Item 12th. It is my will that my wife Betsey Adams and my son Jonathan Adams act as my Executrix and Executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former ones by me made. Signed sealed and published this 17th of April 1833 (Interlined and waded before signed)
