

Ordinary Office.

In the name of God Amen. —

I Patten Wise considering that life is uncertain And dangerous, that my affair may be settled whenever it shall please God to call me home, Do ordain this my last will and testament. That is to say, In the hope of a better resurrection of ^{second} ~~second~~ ^{life} ~~life~~, I will my body to the ground, and my spirit to God who gave it. —

As touching such worldly estate where with it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner, — Let all my Just dues be collected and they together with as much of the perishable part of my estate as may be requisite to the payment of my debts

Respecting the remainder my will is that it remain in the care and use of my loving wife, Elizabeth Wise, for the Maintenance of her the said Elizabeth and my legitimate Children, till the youngest of them shall be of lawful age, at that time to be equally divided amongst them, my said Children, with however this special proviso, that the said Elizabeth, my loving wife withen dies nor choosy to marry, and provided also that she make a prudent use thereof, and does not commit an unnecessary waste of the said Remainder —

I do hereby revoke and appoint my said

And desiring that my affairs may be settled whenever it shall please God to call me home, Do ordain
this my last will and testament. That is to say, In the hope of a better resurrection & eternal life, I will my body to the ground, and my spirit to God who gave it. —

it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner, — Let all my Just dues
