Not knowing at what time the straight way take back the life which he has given me I thought proper whilst my body is sufficiently strong and my intellects sound to dispose of the few effects of which I am possessed in the following manner

To my respected mother as a token of my filial remembrance of mine respect for her I give a common house clock which shall not be worth less than one hundred nor more than one hundred and twenty dollars

To my brother John as a remembrance of his paternal regard for me I give a silver watch

To my brother Mrs Ann and give my medicines shop furniture including my Machine medical books and my father's old house the amount partly in regard of my affection for him and partly as a compensation for whatever demands he may have against my estate.

To my affectionate sisters Mary Rein, Hannah, Sarah, Elizabeth, Sarah, Martha Irish and Ann Bush I give mementoes of my regard for them I give to each a silver table spoon and a silver tea spoon on the handles with their respective names I desire that the above mentioned be made within twelve months after my decease.

And further gives the sum of Sixty Dollars to be paid hereafter twelve months after my death which sum I use annually for four years if I should live long or discharge wisdom had if it should not come that sum. — in the tranquility & compliance to life there given up that we should be settled much more of the things of this world than myself I therefore, I therefore give and bequeath to
