Georgia
 Jefferson County 4 D. Value of an order from the Honorable the Inferior Court of said County when sitting for ordinary purposes on the third Monday in December last, he directed authorizing and requiring us to make distribution of part of the Estate of Robert Hudson deceased among the distributees of said Estate we proceeded on this day to the performance of that duty. We ascertained that there were Twelve distributees to wit.

The shares were numbered from ones to Twelve and were assigned to the Distributors, in the following manner to wit. The names of the Distributors were written on long slips of paper of equal width, & length, & were arranged in rows as the folios of a Family Bible. Other Tickets with the adjustment of property were folded neatly and placed within a Mat. Then a slip of Paper was drawn from the Book, and a corresponding ticket from the Mat, and the name on the slip of Paper drawn from the Book, forthwith enclosed in the back of the share ticket. The following is the result.
