William B. Allen's Will.

In the name of God, Amen, I William B. Allen of the County of Jones & State of Georgia being very sick & weak in body, but of perfect mind & memory thanks be given to God, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life with, I give demise & dispose of the same in the following manner & form. First, It is my Will & desire that all my personal property together with my land shall be sold at publick Sale giving twenty months credit taking bonds bearing interest from the date (except such property as wife wants for the support of the family) and after these bonds are collected together with the accounts which are due me at this I wish the money laid out to the best advantage in likely young increasing Negroes, which negroes will then be at the disposal, or management of my Executors for the use of my family. It is also my Will & desire that my son James
