Jesse Allen's Will.

In the name of God, Amen, I Jesse Allen of Baldwin County + State of Georgia being weakly in Body, but of perfect mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament in the following manner + form, that is to say, First + principally of all I recommend my Soul to the hands of Almighty God who gave it + my Body I recommend to the Earth from whence it was taken to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my Executors nothing doubting but I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate that God hath blessed me with in my life time, I dispose of the same in the following manner. First I give and bequeath to my well beloved wife Charity Allen one Negro woman Phillis + two mares with a Saddle + Bridle, five Cows + Calves and one Bed + furniture. Secondly I give to my son William Allen One Mare Saddle + Bridle and all my Gun + Axe + blacksmith tools, and thirdly all the rest of testate real and personally consisting of Beds, household furniture, a negro man named George and a negro boy named Dennis together with all the rest of my moveable property, Books, Accounts, Notes and what dues + demands to be equally divided amongst my four children, viz William, Elizabeth + Patsy Allen, and lastly I constitute my dear Wife Charity Allen, and William Allen my son to be sole Executors of this my last Will + Testament and the said Executor to see all my just debts paid out of the first + readiest of my monies, Goods + Chattels + my said Wife to take care of my three Children, Robert, Elizabeth + Patsy Allen, and to use her endeavors to bring them up in a decent Christian manner, and to give them schooling, And I do Ordain + constitute this to be my last Will + Testament, rejecting all former Wills + Testaments or Sequies by me in anywise made heretofore, and acknowledging this only to be my last Will + Testament. I n witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand + Seal this 27th November 1806 signed, sealed, published + declared to be my last Will + Testament in the presence of these Witnesses.
