

Littleberry Kings Will.

In the name of God, Amen, I Berry King of the State of Georgia Jones County being well in Body & a perfect mind & memory Thanks be to God Calling to mind the Mortality of my Body & knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make & ordain this my last Will & testament, that is to say, principally & first of all I give & recommend my Soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it me, and my Body I recommend to the Earth to be buried in a decent Christian Burial at the discretion of my Executors, knowing but at the general Resurrection I shall rise the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, After all my just debts are paid I give and devise and dispose of the same in the following manner & form. First I give & bequeath to Mary my beloved Wife One feather Bed & Furniture, and also to be supported her life time on the property I leave & at her death the feather Bed & Furniture to be given to my Daughter Mary. And to my daughter Betsey I give & bequeath One horse & feather Bed & Furniture her life time, and then to her two Children James & Martha. And to my daughter Isabella I give & bequeath, One feather Bed & Furniture, and an equal division of all the Cattle and Hogs to be divided between herself and Betsey at my death, and at their death to be equally divided between their children, and to my Son John I give & bequeath One Negro Man named James, and one Sorel Mare, And to daughter Mary I give & bequeath one Negro Woman named Lott & one Colt, And my land to be for the use of my Wife & all the above mentioned Children, as long as They on the s^d place live. And to my daughter Mary Williams I give & bequeath one dollar. I also constitute, make & ordain James Miller & John King my Sons the sole Executors of this my last Will & testament. And I do hereby utterly disavow, revoke, & disannul all & every former testament, Will, bequest, bequeath, and Executors by me in any will before made, killed & bequeathed. Ratifying & confirming this & no other to be my last Will. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 13th day of June in the Year of our Lord 1812, and in the 36th Year of American Independence.
